The Gospel of John

From the Mouth of Yochanan

Chapter 1:1

1:1) In the beginning was the Word. The Word was with God, and the Word was God. 1:2) He was in the beginning with God. 1:3) All matter came into existence through Him, and apart from Him, nothing whatever came into existence that has come to be. 1:4) In Him was life, and the life was the light of each person. 1:5) The light continually shines in the darkness, but the darkness did not gain mastery of it.

1:6) A man came who was sent from God. His name was Yochanan. 1:7) He came for the purpose of giving a witness, to testify about the light, in order that all might believe through him. 1:8) He was not the light, but he came in order to give testimony about the light.

1:9) The true light which gives illumination to every person was coming into the world. 1:10) Though He was in the world and the world was created through Him, the people of the world did not recognize Him. 1:11) He came to His own creation, but those who were His own did not acknowledge Him. 1:12) As many as received Him, to
