In Senate of the United States

October 20th 1803.

The Senate took into consideration the Treaty and two Conventions made with the French Republic; —

Whereupon,

Resolved, two thirds of the Senators present concurring therein, that the Senate do advise and consent to the ratification of the Treaty made and concluded at Paris the 10th day of Floreal, in the 11th year of the French republic, (the 30th April, 1803) between the United States and the said French republic, as well as to the two Conventions connected therewith, and made and concluded between the two republics, on the same day, by Robert R. Livingston and James Munroe, Ministers plenipotentiary on the part of the United States, and Barbé Marbois, Minister of the public treasury of the French republic, on the part of the said republic. —

Attest.

Sam: A. Otis Secretary.
