pg 94. Introduction [1787, June 18]

1

I Importance of the occasion

II – Solid plan without regard to temporary opinion.

III – If an ineffectual plan be again proposed it will beget despair & no government will grow out of convent

IV There seem to be but three lines of conduct

I A league offensive and defensive, treaty of commerce, & apportionment of the public debt.

II An ~~adm~~ amendment of the present confederation by adding such powers as the public mind seems nearest being matured to grant.

III – The forming a new government to pervade the whole with decisive powers in short with complete sovereignty.
