Sociology
Class here works that are primarily theoretical in orientation. Class empirical works, including those limited to specific places, in subclass HN
Many topics provided for here represent concepts also encompassed by the discipline of ethnology in GN301+ In cases of overlap, the following principle should normally apply, unless specific instructions are made to the contrary: Class here works that deal principally with modern civilization. For works that deal with the nature of human societies in general, as well as works that deal specifically with preliterate and/or folk societies, see GN301+
