Featured speaker: Ruth Fischer, Partner, R2 Consulting LLC, and co-author of "A Study of the North American MARC Records Marketplace." Her presentation is an overview of the discovery process, information gathered, and interpretation of findings from the report they produced for the Library of Congress in 2009 to research and describe the current marketplace for cataloging records in the MARC format, with primary focus on the economics of current practices, including existing incentives and barriers to both contribution and availability.
