Exchange of notes at Buenos Aires September 30 and October 17, 1939
Entered into force October 17, 1939

54 Stat. 1855; Executive Agreement Series 162

The Minister of Foreign Affairs and Worship to the American Ambassador

[TRANSLATION]

MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND WORSHIP

D. A. P.
Buenos Aires, September 30, 1939.

MR. AMBASSADOR:

With reference to the Embassy's note No. 1022 of January 12 last, I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that the Argentine Government agrees to conclude with the Government of the United States the following agreement proposed by the United States for the exchange of official publications:

There shall be a complete exchange of publications between the Government of the Argentine Republic and the Government of the United States of America, to be effected as follows:

1. The office of official exchange on the part of the Argentine Republic is the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Worship, through the medium of its Fourth Section. The office of official exchange for the transmission of publications from the United States of America is the Smithsonian Institution.

2. The remittance of such exchanged publications shall be received on behalf of the Argentine Republic by the Fourth Section of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Worship; on behalf of the United States of America by the Library of Congress.

3. The Government of the Argentine Republic shall supply regularly in one copy a complete collection of the official publications of its various departments, offices, sections, and institutions. A list of these entities is enclosed. This list shall be extended in such a way as to include, without requiring subsequent formalities, any new office which the Government may establish hereafter.

4. The Government of the United States of America shall supply regularly in one copy a complete collection of the official publications of its various departments, offices, sections, and institutions. A list of these entities is enclosed. This list shall be extended in such a way as to include, without requiring subsequent formalities, any new office which the Government may establish hereafter.

5. With regard to entities which at present do not issue publications and which do not figure in the enclosed lists, it is understood that the publications which such entities may issue in the future shall be transmitted in one copy.

6. Neither of the Governments shall be obliged by the present agreement to supply confidential publications, forms, or circulars that are not of public character.

7. Both contracting parties shall be responsible for postal, railway, maritime, and other expenses originating in their own country in fulfillment of the present agreement.

8. Both parties express their desire to hasten, as much as possible, the forwarding of their publications.

9. The present agreement shall not be considered as a modification of the agreements on exchange already existing between the entities of both Governments.

If Your Excellency's Government should be agreeable to the text quoted above, with the reception of an identical note from Your Excellency, my Government will consider the foregoing agreement to be concluded.

I avail myself of this opportunity to reiterate to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

José María Cantilo

The American Ambassador to the Minister of Foreign Affairs and Worship

Embassy of the United States of America

Buenos Aires, October 17, 1939.

Excellency:

In acknowledging the receipt of Your Excellency's note of September 30, 1939, I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that the Government of the United States agrees to conclude with the Government of the Argentine Republic the following agreement, proposed in the Embassy's note no. 1022 of January 12, 1939, for the exchange of official publications.

There shall be a complete exchange of official publications between the Government of Argentina and the Government of the United States, which shall be conducted in accordance with the following provisions:

1. The official exchange office for the transmission of publications of the United States of America is the Smithsonian Institution. The official exchange office on the part of Argentina is the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

2. The exchange sendings shall be received on behalf of the United States of America by the Library of Congress; on behalf of Argentina by the Fourth Section of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

"3. The Government of the United States of America shall furnish regularly in one copy a full set of the official publications of its several departments, bureaus, offices, and institutions. A list of such instrumentalities is attached (List No. 1). This list shall be extended to include, without the necessity of subsequent negotiation, any new offices that the Government may create in the future.

"4. The Government of Argentina shall furnish regularly in one copy a full set of the official publications of its several departments, bureaus, offices, and institutions. A list of such departments is attached (List No. 2). This list shall be extended to include, without the necessity of subsequent negotiation, any new offices that the Government may create in the future.

"5. With respect to instrumentalities which at this time do not issue publications and which are not mentioned in the attached lists, it is understood that publications issued in the future by those instrumentalities shall be furnished in one copy.

"6. Neither Government shall be obligated by this agreement to furnish confidential publications, blank forms, or circular letters not of a public nature.

"7. Each party to the agreement shall bear the postal, railroad, steamship, and other charges arising in its own country.

"8. Both parties express their willingness as far as possible to expedite shipments.

"9. This agreement shall not be understood to modify the already existing exchange agreements between the various instrumentalities of the two Governments".

In accordance with the suggestion contained in Your Excellency's note above referred to, the Government of the United States will consider this exchange of notes as constituting an agreement.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.
