

NATIONAL BOOK FESTIVAL

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS PAVILION SCHEDULE

Saturday, September 24, 2011

- 11:00 AM Thomas Jefferson Building: Art and Architecture
LC Docent, Visitor Services Office
- 11:40 AM THOMAS Takeaways for the Curious and Concerned Citizen: How To Easily Access FREE Legislative Information at the Library of Congress
Andrew Weber, Law Library
- 12:20 PM Veterans History Project: Make it Meaningful
Robert Patrick, Veterans History Project
- 1:00 PM The Library of Congress Illustrated Timeline of the Civil War
Margaret Wagner, Publishing Office
- 1:40 PM Finding your Family History at LC
Local History and Genealogy Staff
- 2:20 PM Photo Collections and Civil War Faces
Helena Zinkham, Prints and Photographs Division
- 3:00 PM Making the National Jukebox
Gene DeAnna, National Audio Visual Conservation Center
- 3:40 PM Veterans History Project: Make it Meaningful
Robert Patrick, Veterans History Project
- 4:20 PM An Overview of the World Digital Library
Kaleena Black, Cecilia Penaloza, World Digital Library

Sunday, September 25, 2011

- 1:20 PM Dipping from the Well: Drawing Inspiration from the American Folklife Center Collections
Todd Harvey, American Folklife Center
- 2:00 PM National Jukebox Treasures: Victor Pre-Matrix Series, 1900 - 1903
David Sager, National Audio Visual Conservation Center
- 2:40 PM Thomas Jefferson Building: Art and Architecture
LC Docent, Visitor Services Office
- 3:20 PM The Library of Congress Illustrated Timeline of the Civil War
Margaret Wagner, Publishing Office
- 4:00 PM The Timelessness of Law: 18th Century Legal Philosophy in the 21st Century
Nathan Dorn, Law Library
- 4:40 PM The National Recording Registry of the Library of Congress
Matthew Barton, National Audio Visual Conservation Center