

NUCMC Catalog Record

Creator: Douglass, Frederick, 1818-1895.

Title: Frederick Douglass papers, 1790-1943 (bulk, 1847-1895).

Date created: 1790-1943; bulk, 1847-1895.

Extent: 6 linear ft.

Biographical data: Abolitionist, journalist, and diplomat; born Frederick Augustus Washington Bailey.

Summary: Includes correspondence, writings, news articles, memorabilia, and photographs, by and about Douglass and his family. Also includes published and unpublished writings on abolitionism, abolitionists, and civil rights; financial documents relating to Douglass's appointment as commissioner for Haiti to the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago in 1893; obituaries and tributes; memorabilia and photographs relating to John Brown; and two indentures (1790 and 1796). Other persons represented include William Lloyd Garrison, Harriet Beecher Stowe, and John Greenleaf Whittier. Topics represented include slavery and antislavery movements; and journalism.

Subjects: Brown, John, 1800-1859.
Garrison, William Lloyd, 1805-1879.
Stowe, Harriet Beecher, 1811-1896.
Whittier, John Greenleaf, 1807-1892.
Douglas family.
Douglass family.
World's Columbian Exposition (1893 : Chicago, Ill.)
Abolitionists -- United States.
Antislavery movements -- United States.
Civil rights -- United States.
Real property -- United States.
Slavery -- United States.

Diplomatic and consular service, American -- Haiti.
Haiti -- History -- 1844-1934.
Journalism -- United States.
African American abolitionists.

OCLC 726861727