

11-26-14

To Whom It May Concern,

As a 30 year broadcaster and college educator, I must express my opposition to the CBI-CRB agreement on streaming royalty rates.

Sound Exchanged has settled with NPR stations for as little as $50 per year. To charge academic radio stations that are being used as valuable learning laboratories $500 based on the input of one college media group is both unfair and ethically questionable.

Sincerely,

Prof. Len Mailloux

Assoc. Prof. of Communications

Simmons College

Boston, Ma