

—FLICC Orientations to Libraries and Information Centers Series—
Louis Stokes Health Sciences
 Library at Howard University

As part of a series of orientations to libraries and information centers, FLICC is offering an opportunity for federal librarians to become acquainted with the Louis Stokes Health Sciences Library at Howard University. Founded in 1869, the library moved into a state-of-the-art facility two years ago. The program will include

- Welcome and Introductions
- History and Focus
- Building Tour
- Special Collections

Date Thursday, June 26, 2003

Time 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon

Place Louis Stokes Health Sciences Library and Learning Resource Center
 501 W Street NW
 Washington, D.C.

Metro Shaw/Howard University (Green Line)
 Walk North on Georgia Avenue and turn right on W Street

Room Main Lobby

Special Instructions Please bring a picture identification—driver's license or a federal agency employee badge.

Directions Visit the Howard University Web site at <http://www.howard.edu/administration/parking/directions.htm>

Sponsor FLICC Education Working Group

Registration Free, but advanced registration required. Call the FLICC office to register—(202) 707-4800—or visit the FLICC Educational Programs Web site at <http://www.loc.gov/flicc/feveform.html>. Limited to 25 attendees.

Request ADA Accommodations five business days in advance at (202) 707-6362 TTY or ACA@loc.gov.

Cancellations Please notify FLICC (202) 707-4800 if you cannot attend so those on the waiting list have an opportunity to register.