

—FLICC Orientations to Libraries and Information Centers Series—

National Archives Archives Library Information Center

As part of a series of orientations to libraries and information centers, FLICC is offering an opportunity for federal librarians to become acquainted with the Archives Library Information Center (ALIC) in the completely new Research Center in the National Archives building in Washington, D.C. Closely allied with the Customer Service Center and the genealogical reference unit of The National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), ALIC has moved to newly-renovated space within the building. The program will include

- Welcome
- History and Focus
- Tour of the new Research Center including ALIC
- Visit to the National Archives Rotunda, with the Charters of Freedom

Date Tuesday, November 25, 2003

Time 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon

Place The National Archives—Archives Library Information Center, Room G30, 700 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C.

Special Instructions Please bring a picture identification—driver's license or employee badge from another federal agency.

Directions The National Archives is located at 700 Pennsylvania Avenue between Seventh and Ninth Streets, N.W. The research entrance to the building is located across Pennsylvania Avenue from the Archives/Navy Memorial Metro stop for the Green and Yellow lines.

Sponsor FLICC Education Working Group

Registration Free, but advanced registration required. Call the FLICC office to register—(202) 707-4800—or visit the FLICC Educational Programs Web site at <http://www.loc.gov/flicc/feveform.html>.

Request ADA Accommodations five business days in advance at (202) 707-6362 TTY or ACA@loc.gov.

Cancellations Please notify FLICC at (202) 707-4800 if you cannot attend so those on the waiting list have an opportunity to register.