

Library and Information Technology Association (LITA) Regional Institute eBooks: After Hype and Death, What Really Works?

This one-day workshop will give a "state of the business" overview of eBooks with an emphasis on library usability of eBooks. It will cover what librarians can actually use and do with eBooks, and what to expect in the near future, including practical applications and many "buyer beware" warnings. The program will look at business models for eBook providers as indicators of the viability of that provider both in the open market place and for libraries specifically. The main points of the workshop will be
