

Practical International Copyright Law

Gain a practical view of international copyright issues including gaining and obtaining permission when dealing with holders in foreign countries and online works. This course addresses:

- the meaning and role of international copyright law including key organizations, and what it means to you;
- identifying principles of international copyright law and how to apply them;
- enforcing your copyrights internationally;
- dealing with international copyright infringements;
- discovering exploitation of rights internationally and global license agreements;
- obtaining permissions to use content from other countries;
- anticipating the future of international copyright—what’s covered, what’s not and what you have to be aware of now.

This online course is part of a series of online courses offered by Copyrightlaws.com and developed by author, speaker and copyright lawyer, Lesley Ellen Harris. See: <http://copyrightlaws.com>. For further information, email: seminars@copyrightlaws.com.
