As part of a series of orientations to federal libraries and information centers, FLICC is offering an opportunity for federal librarians to become acquainted with the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) Knowledge Services Center in Washington, DC.

The tour of the USAID Knowledge Services Center will include the opportunity to learn about their collections, including a professional development center that features world fiction, documentaries, language materials, travel guides, archival repository, knowledge management services and customized research operations. Attendees will also learn about USAID's benchmarking initiative, their most recent needs assessment and their communications campaign.

On the day of the event, please bring a valid photo ID to obtain a badge from the Security Office. Registrants are advised to arrive no later than 9:45 a.m. to allow time for screening.
