CHAP. 254.—An act making appropriations for the support of the Army for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and for other purposes.

June 30, 1882.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby, appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the support of the Army for the year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, as follows:

Army appropriations.

For expenses of the Commanding General's office, two thousand five hundred dollars.

Commanding General's office.

For expenses of recruiting and transportation of recruits from rendezvous to depot, one hundred and two thousand dollars. And no money appropriated by this act shall be paid for recruiting the Army beyond the number of twenty-five thousand enlisted men, including Indian scouts and hospital stewards: and thereafter there shall be no more than twenty-five thousand enlisted men in the Army at any one time, unless otherwise authorized by law. Nothing, however, in this act shall be construed to prevent enlistments for the Signal Service, which shall hereafter be maintained as now organized and as provided by law, with a force of enlisted men not exceeding five hundred.

Recruiting.
No payment to be made for recruiting the Army beyond, etc.

Signal Service to be diminished.

For contingent expenses of the Adjutant-General's Department at the headquarters of military divisions and departments, three thousand dollars.

Contingencies.

For expenses of the Signal Service of the Army, purchase, equipment, and repair of electric field-telegraphs, and signal equipments and stores, ten thousand five hundred dollars.
