CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE QUILEUTE TRIBE OF THE QUILEUTE RESERVATION

PREAMBLE

We, the Indians of the Quileute Tribe of the Quileute Reservation, Washington, pursuant to the Act of Congress of June 18, 1934, do hereby establish this Constitution of the Quileute Tribe, in order to secure a more perfect tribal organization, promote the general welfare, encourage educational progress, conserve and develop our lands and resources, and secure to ourselves and our posterity the power to exercise certain rights of home rule.

ARTICLE I—TERRITORY

The jurisdiction of the Quileute Tribe shall include all the territory within the original confines of the Quileute Reservation as set forth by Executive Order of February 19, 1889, and shall extend to such other lands as have been or may hereafter be added thereto under any law of the United States, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE II—MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. The membership of the Quileute Tribe shall consist of:

(a) All persons of Indian blood whose names appear on the official census roll of the Tribe as of April 1, 1935;

(b) All children born to any member of the Tribe provided such member is a resident of the reservation at the time of the birth of such children, all children of one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) or more Indian blood born to any non-resident member of the Tribe, and all children of any degree of Indian blood both of whose parents are members of the Tribe.

SEC. 2. The Tribal Council shall have the power to promulgate ordinances subject to review by the Secretary of the Interior, governing future membership and the adoption of new members, making any necessary adjustments of property rights.

ARTICLE III—GOVERNING BODY

SECTION 1. The governing body of the Quileute Tribe shall consist of a council known as the Quileute Tribal Council.

SEC. 2. This Council shall consist of five (5) members each of whom shall serve three years and until his successor is elected and installed. Two (2) members shall be elected each year on the last Monday in December except 1937 and every third year thereafter when one (1) shall be elected.

SEC. 3. The Council so organized shall elect from within its own number (1) a Chairman; (2) a Vice-Chairman; and from within or without, (3) a Secretary, and (4) a Treasurer, and may appoint or employ such other officers or committees as may be deemed necessary.

SEC. 4. Within thirty (30) days after the ratification of this Constitution and its approval by the Secretary of the Interior, the present Tribal Council shall call a general tribal meeting for the election of officers in accordance with this Constitution. The two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall hold office until their successors are elected and installed in 1939; the two candidates receiving the next highest number of votes shall hold office until their successors are elected and installed in 1938; and the next highest, until his successor is elected in 1937.

ARTICLE IV—ELECTIONS FOR THE TRIBAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1. Any member of the Quileute Indian Tribe twenty-one (21) years of age or over who has maintained legal residence within the Quileute Reservation or within the territory of Clallam County for one year immediately preceding any election, shall be entitled to vote or be elected to office therein.

SEC. 2. All elections shall be by secret ballot and shall be held in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Tribal Council or by an election board appointed by the Tribal Council.

ARTICLE V—VACANCIES AND REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

SECTION 1. If a Council member shall die, resign, or permanently leave the reservation, be recalled or removed from office for cause, the Council shall declare the position vacant and appoint a successor to serve until the annual general tribal meeting is held in December, at which time the general tribal meeting shall elect a successor for the unexpired term.

SEC. 2. The Tribal Council may, by a four-fifths ($\frac{4}{5}$) vote of its total membership, expel any member for neglect of duty or gross misconduct, provided charges are made in writing, subscribed by competent witnesses and formally served upon the accused at least five (5) days prior to a public hearing. The accused member shall be given a full and fair opportunity to reply to any and all such charges against him, and also the opportunity to summon witnesses in his behalf.

SEC. 3. Upon a petition of at least one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the eligible voters of the Quileute Tribe it shall be the duty of the Tribal Council to call a special election to consider the recall of the member or members of the Council named in such petition. If a majority of those voting in such election shall vote in favor of such recall from office, the office shall be declared vacant, and the Tribal Council shall proceed in the usual manner to hold an election to fill the said office.

ARTICLE VI—POWERS OF THE TRIBAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Quileute Tribal Council shall exercise the following powers, subject to any limitations imposed by the Federal Statutes, the Constitution of the United States, and subject further to all express restrictions upon such powers provided in this Constitution and By-Laws:

(a) To negotiate with the Federal, State, and local governments on behalf of the Quileute Tribe, and to advise and consult with the representatives of the Interior Department on all activities of the Department that may effect the Quileute Tribe and its members.

(b) To employ legal counsel for the protection and advancement of the rights of the Quileute Tribe, and its members, the choice of such counsel and the fixing of fees to be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

(c) To approve or veto any sale, disposition, lease or encumbrance of tribal lands, interests in lands or other tribal assets which may be authorized or executed by the Secretary of the Interior, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or any other official or agency of government, provided that no tribal lands shall ever be sold or encumbered, or leased for a period exceeding ten (10) years except for governmental purposes.

(d) To advise with the Secretary of the Interior or his representatives on all appropriation estimates or Federal projects for the benefit of the Quileute Tribe, prior to the submission of such estimates to the Bureau of the Budget and to Congress.

(e) To manage all economic affairs and enterprises of the Quileute Tribe in accordance with the terms of a charter that may be issued to the Quileute Tribe by the Secretary of the Interior.

(f) To levy and collect assessments upon members of the Quileute Tribe, or to require the performance of community labor in lieu thereof, provided that no taxes may be levied, nor community labor required, except when approved at the annual December general tribal meeting, or at a special general tribal meeting called for that purpose.

(g) To levy and collect taxes or license fees upon non-members doing business on the reservation, to exclude from the territory of the Tribe persons not legally entitled to reside thereon, or trespassers upon the reservation, under ordinances, all of which shall be subject to review by the Secretary of the Interior.

(h) To enact resolutions or ordinances not inconsistent with Article II of this Constitution governing adoption and abandonment of membership, and to keep at all times a correct roll of the members of the Quileute Indian Tribe.

(i) To promulgate and enforce ordinances, which shall be subject to review by the Secretary of the Interior, governing the conduct of members of the Quileute Tribe, and providing for the maintenance of law and order, and the administration of justice by establishing a Tribal Court, and defining its duties, powers and limitations.

(j) To safeguard and promote the peace, safety, morals and general welfare of the Quileute Tribe by regulating the conduct of trade, and the use and disposition of property upon the reservation, provided that any ordinances directly affecting non-members of the Tribe shall be subject to review by the Secretary of the Interior.

(k) To charter subordinate organizations for economic purposes, and to regulate the activities of cooperative associations of members of the Quileute Indian Tribe by ordinances, provided that any such ordinances shall be subject to review by the Secretary of the Interior.

(l) To appropriate for public purposes of the reservation any available tribal funds, provided that any such appropriation made prior to July 1, 1940, shall be subject to review by the Secretary of the Interior.

(m) To provide for the appointment of guardians for minors and mental incompetents, by ordinance or resolution subject to review by the Secretary of the Interior.

(n) To adopt resolutions regulating the procedure of the Council itself, and other tribal agencies and tribal officials of the reservation.

(o) To acquire, under condemnation proceedings in courts of competent jurisdiction, land or other property needed for public purposes, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

(p) To make assignments of tribal land to members of the Tribe in conformity with Article VIII of this Constitution.

(r) To delegate to subordinate boards, or to cooperative associations, which are open to all members of the Tribe, any of the foregoing powers, reserving the right to review any action taken by such body to whom such power has been delegated.

SEC. 2. Manner of review.—Any resolution or ordinance which by the terms of this Constitution is subject to review by the Secretary of the Interior, shall be presented to the Superintendent of the reservation who shall, within ten (10) days thereafter, approve or disapprove the same. If the Superintendent shall approve said ordinance or resolution, it shall thereupon become effective, but the Superintendent shall transmit a copy of the same bearing his endorsement to the Secretary of the Interior, who may within ninety (90) days from the date of enactment rescind the said ordinance or resolution for any cause by notifying the Tribal Council of such decision.

If the Superintendent shall refuse to approve any resolution or ordinance submitted to him within ten (10) days after its enactment, he shall advise the Quileute Tribal Council of his reasons therefor. If these reasons appear to the Council insufficient, it may by a majority vote, refer the ordinance or resolution to the Secretary of the Interior, who may within ninety (90) days from the date of its enactment approve the same in writing, whereupon the said ordinance or resolution shall become effective.

SEC. 3. Further powers.—The Quileute Tribal Council may exercise such further powers as may in the future be delegated to the Council by the Secretary of the Interior, or by any other duly authorized official or agency of government.

SEC. 4. Reserved powers.—Any rights or powers heretofore vested in the Quileute Tribe but not expressly referred to in this Constitution, shall not be abridged by this Article, but may be exercised by the people of the Quileute Tribe through the adoption of appropriate by-laws and constitutional amendments.

ARTICLE VII—BILL OF RIGHTS

SECTION 1. Suffrage.—All members of the Tribe over the age of twenty-one (21) shall have the right to vote in all tribal reservation elections. The residence qualifications established by Article IV of this Constitution shall apply to all elections except elections for the amendment of this Constitution and By-laws.

SEC. 2. Economic rights.—All members of the Tribe shall be accorded equal opportunities to participate in the economic resources and activities of the reservation.

SEC. 3. Civil liberties.—All members of the Tribe may enjoy, without hindrance, freedom of worship, conscience, speech, press, assembly, and association.

SEC. 4. Rights of accused.—Any member of the Quileute Tribe accused of any offense shall have the right to a prompt, open and public hearing, with due notice of the offense charged, and shall be permitted to summon witnesses on his own behalf. Trial by jury may be demanded by any prisoner accused of any offense punishable by more than thirty (30) days imprisonment or more than forty-five ($45.00) dollars fine.

Excessive bail shall not be required and cruel punishment shall not be imposed.

ARTICLE VIII—LAND

SECTION 1. Allotted lands.—Allotted lands, including heirship lands, within the Quileute Reservation shall continue to be held as heretofore by their present owners. It is recognized that under existing law such lands may be condemned for public purposes, such as roads, public buildings, or other public improvements, upon payment of adequate compensation, by any agency of the State of Washington or of the Federal Government, or by the Tribe itself. It is further recognized that under existing law such lands may be inherited by the heirs of the present owner, whether or not they are members of the Quileute Tribe. Likewise, it is recognized that under existing law, the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, remove restrictions upon such land, upon application by the Indian owner, whereupon the land will become subject to State taxes and may then be mortgaged or sold. The right of the individual Indian to hold or to part with his land, as under existing law, shall not be abrogated by anything contained in this Constitution, but the owner of restricted land may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, voluntarily convey his land to the Quileute Tribe either in exchange for a money payment or in exchange for an assignment covering the same land, or other land, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. Tribal lands.—The unallotted lands of the Quileute Reservation, and all lands which may hereafter be acquired by the Quileute Tribe or by the United States in trust for the Quileute Tribe, shall be held as tribal lands, and no part of such land shall be mortgaged or sold. Tribal lands shall not be allotted to individual Indians but may be assigned to members of the Quileute Tribe, or leased, or otherwise used by the Tribe, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 3. Leasing of tribal lands.—Tribal lands may be leased by the Tribal Council, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, for such periods of time as are permitted by law.

In the leasing of tribal lands, preference shall be given, first, to cooperative associations of members of the Tribe, and second, to members of the Quileute Tribe.

SEC. 4. Grant of standard assignments.—In any assignment of tribal lands which now are owned by the Tribe or which hereafter may be acquired for the Tribe by the United States or purchased by the Tribe out of tribal funds, preference shall be given, first, to heads of families which are entirely landless, and second, to heads of families whose assignments consist of less than an economic unit.

No allotted member of the Quileute Tribe who may hereafter have the restrictions upon his land removed and whose land may thereafter be alienated, except to the Tribe, shall be entitled to receive an assignment of land as a landless member.

The Tribal Council may, if it sees fit, charge a fee of not to exceed five ($5.00) dollars on approval of an assignment made under this section.

Assignments made under this section shall be for the primary purpose of establishing homes for landless members and shall be known as standard assignments.

SEC. 5. Tenure of standard assignments.—If any member of the Tribe holding a standard assignment of land shall, for a period of two (2) years, fail to use the land so assigned or use such land for any unlawful purpose, his assignment may be cancelled by the Tribal Council after due notice and an opportunity to be heard, and the said land may be reassigned in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of this article.

Upon the death of any Indian holding a standard assignment, his heirs or other individuals designated by him, by will or by written request, shall have a preference in the reassignment of the land, provided such persons are members of the Quileute Tribe who would be eligible to receive a standard assignment.

SEC. 6. Grant of exchange assignments.—Any member of the Tribe who owns an allotment or any share of heirship land may voluntarily transfer his interests in such land to the Tribe in exchange for an assignment to the same land or other land of equal value. If the assignee prefers, he may receive, in lieu of a specific tract of land, a proportionate share in a larger unit.

Assignments made under this section shall be known as exchange assignments.

SEC. 7. Leasing of exchange assignments.—Exchange assignments may be used by the assignee or leased by him to Indian cooperative associations of members of the Tribe or to individual members of the Tribe, or, if no individual member or cooperative association of members of the Tribe is able and willing to rent the land at a reasonable fee, such assignments may be leased to non-Indians in the same manner as allotted lands.

SEC. 8. Inheritance of exchange assignments.—Upon the death of the holder of any exchange assignment, such land shall be reassigned by the Tribal Council to his heirs or devisees, subject to the following conditions:

(a) Such lands may not be reassigned to any heir or devisee who is not a member of the Quileute Tribe, except that a life assignment may be made to the surviving widower or widow of the holder of an assignment.

(b) Such lands may not be reassigned to any heir or devisee who already holds more than an economic unit of land, to be determined from time to time by the Tribal Council.

(c) Such lands may not be subdivided among heirs or devisees into units too small for convenient management. No area of un-cleared or timber land shall be subdivided into units smaller than forty (40) acres, and no area of tillable agricultural land shall be subdivided into units smaller than two and one-half (2½) acres, except that land used for buildings or other improvements may be divided to suit the convenience of the parties. Where it is impossible to divide the land properly among the eligible heirs or devisees, the Tribal Council may issue to the eligible heirs or devisees other interests in tribal lands of the same value as the assignment of the decedent.

(d) If there are no eligible heirs or devisees of the decedent, the land shall be eligible for reassignment in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of this article.

SEC. 9. Inheritance of improvements.—Improvements of any character made upon assigned land may be bequeathed to and inherited by members of the Quileute Tribe or otherwise disposed of under such regulations as the Tribal Council shall provide; provided, that sales of improvements on the land of any decedent can be made only to members of the Quileute Indian Tribe.

SEC. 10. Exchange of assignments.—Assignments may be exchanged between members of the Quileute Tribe by common consent in such manner as the Tribal Council shall designate.

SEC. 11. Use of unassigned tribal land.—Tribal land which is not assigned, including tribal timber reserves, shall be managed by the Tribal Council for the benefit of the members of the entire Tribe, and any cash income derived from such land shall accrue to the benefit of the Tribe as a whole. All action of the Tribal Council with respect to such lands shall be in conformity with departmental regulations for the protection of Indian range and timber resources authorized by section 6 of the Act of June 18, 1934.

SEC. 12. Purchase of land by tribe.—Tribal funds may be used, with the consent of the Secretary of the Interior, to acquire land, under the following conditions:

(a) Land within the Quileute Reservation or adjacent to the boundaries thereof which is not now in Indian ownership, may be purchased by or for the Quileute Tribe.

(b) Restricted land, which is in heirship status at the time of the adoption and approval of this Constitution, may be purchased by or for the Tribe, with the consent of all the adult heirs, and the legal guardians of minor heirs, payment therefor to be made as may be agreed upon.

(c) Land owned by any member of the Tribe who is over the age of sixty (60) years, or who is physically incapacitated, may be transferred by its owner to the Tribe in exchange for a pension of not more than twice the annual rental value of the land for the life of the pensioner, to be paid out of available tribal funds.

(d) Land owned by any member of the Tribe in excess of his needs for domestic purposes may be purchased by the Tribe with the consent of the owner, payments to be made on such terms as may be agreed upon by the Council and the owner.

(e) Land owned by any members of the Tribe who desire to leave the reservation permanently may be purchased by the Tribe under such terms as may be agreed upon.

SEC. 13. Method of making assignments.—Applications for assignment shall be filed with the Secretary of the Council and shall be in writing, setting forth the name of the person or persons applying for the land and as accurate a description of the land desired as the circumstances will permit.

Notices of all applications received by the Secretary shall be posted by him in the Agency office and in at least three conspicuous places on the reservation for not less than twenty (20) days before action is taken by the Council. Any member of the Tribe wishing to oppose the granting of an assignment shall do so in writing, setting forth his objections, to be filed with the Secretary of the Council, and may if he so desires, appear before the Council to present evidence. The Secretary of the Council shall furnish the Superintendent or other officers in charge of the agency a complete record of all action taken by the Council on applications for assignment of land, and a complete record of assignments shall be kept in the agency office and shall be open for inspection by members of the Tribe.

The Council shall draw up one or more forms for standard and exchange assignments, which shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

ARTICLE IX—REFERENDUM

Upon a petition of at least one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the qualified voters of the Quileute Tribe, a referendum may be demanded on any enacted or proposed ordinance or resolution of the Tribal Council, and the vote of the majority of the qualified voters in such referendum shall be conclusive and binding on the Tribal Council.

ARTICLE X—AMENDMENTS

This Constitution and By-laws may be amended by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the Tribe voting at an election called for that purpose by the Secretary of the Interior, provided that at least thirty (30) percent of those entitled to vote shall vote in such election; but no amendment shall become effective until it shall have been approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to call an election on any proposed amendment upon receipt of a petition signed by one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the qualified voters, members of the Tribe.
