SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the balance of the appropriation of two thousand two hundred dollars, "for flagging footway in the congressional burying-ground from the entrance of the same to the government vault," per act approved third March, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, be applied in extending the flagging the whole length of the avenue, as was originally intended; and that the appropriation of one thousand five hundred dollars "for the construction of a wooden bridge, with a double track, across the canal, in the line of Maine Avenue," per same act, may be applied to the erection of a footbridge in lieu thereof, as recommended by the Commissioner of Public Buildings.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That section six of an act passed August eighteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, entitled "An act making appropriations for certain civil expenses of the government for the year ending thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven," shall apply to the subsistence of the commissioner therein named from the time he entered upon the discharge of his duties, and the same shall be paid out of appropriations already made.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in addition to those now authorized by law, there may be employed by the Secretary of the Treasury, in the office of the Register of the Treasury, an additional clerk of Secretary of Treasury may employ additional clerks.
the third class, and in the office of the Treasurer of the United States an additional clerk of the third class; and three thousand two hundred dollars to carry into effect the provisions of this section to the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, is hereby appropriated.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That no part of the appropriations which may be at any time made for the contingent expenses of either House of Congress, shall be applied to any other than the ordinary expenditures of the Senate and House of Representatives, nor as extra allowance to any clerk, messenger, or attendant of the said two Houses or either of them, nor as payment or compensation to any clerk, messenger, or other attendant of the said two Houses, or either of them, unless such clerk, messenger, or other attendant, be so employed by a resolution of one of said Houses.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the extra compensation paid out of the contingent fund of the Senate, to clerks of committees, under the resolution of the fourteenth March, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, be allowed at the treasury.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Public Buildings to cause obstructions of every kind to be removed from such streets, avenues, and side-walks in the city of Washington as have been, or may be hereafter, improved in whole or in part by the United States, and to keep the same, at all times, free from obstructions; and, for this purpose, he shall have power to institute suits in any court having competent jurisdiction in the District of Columbia; and it shall be the duty of the district attorney for said district to prosecute the same; and whenever any person shall desire to remove the paving stones, or to displace any other work done by the authority of the United States, for the purpose of laying gas pipes, or for any other purpose, it shall be the duty of such person to obtain a written permit from the said Commissioner; and such persons shall oblige themselves to replace the said work to the satisfaction of the said Commissioner, and within such time as he may prescribe.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall place any obstruction on the streets, avenues, or side-walks aforesaid, such person shall pay the costs of removing the same, and shall moreover, be subject to a penalty of ten dollars, to be recovered as other debts are recovered in the District of Columbia, for each and every day the said obstruction may remain after the Commissioner shall have given notice for its removal. And if any person or persons removing the paving stones or other work done by the authority of the United States, shall fail to replace the same, the whole to be recovered before any court in the District of Columbia, having competent jurisdiction; and that this and the preceding section shall continue in force until repealed by Congress.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury be instructed to report to Congress, at its next regular session, all applications made by the constituted authorities of the States and cities for the reopening and reexamination of the settlements heretofore made with such State[s] and cities, and report the principle of readjustments upon which such claim is based, and the amount thereof. And the Secretary of the Treasury is further instructed to report to Congress at its next regular session, the gross amount that will be required to pay such claim to the States and cities of the United States.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the eleventh section of the act of Congress, approved September fourth, eighteen hundred and forty-one, entitled "an act to appropriate the proceeds of the public lands, and to grant preemption rights," be so amended that appeals from the decisions of the district officers, in cases of contest between different settlers for the right of preemption, shall hereafter be decided by the Commissioner of the General Land-Office, whose decision shall be final, unless appeal therefrom be taken to the Secretary of the Interior.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the proper accounting officers of the Treasury be directed to ascertain as among the expenditures of the State of Maine, in defending the territory heretofore in dispute with Great Britain, the amounts paid in borrowing money for those expenditures beyond the rate of six per centum per annum, whether in the form of discounts or otherwise, in all cases in which the principal of such expenditures, and interest upon them, at the rate of six per cent, have heretofore been refunded to said State by the United States, and that the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to pay the amount so ascertained out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to any properly authorized officer of said State. In making the ascertainment herein directed, the accounting officers shall compute the principal and interest of the difference between the cash received by Maine, in negotiating stocks and notes, and the nominal amount of such stocks and notes, and the interest accrued thereon, and in cases where Maine was obliged in negotiating for moneys, to increase the rate of interest on previous loans, the amount of such increase shall be computed and allowed, but not so as to reckon interest upon interest.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That so much of all acts and parts of acts, as require or authorize the Postmaster-General to publish notice of letting contracts to carry the mails in the respective States, in newspapers published in the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That the line surveyed by John C. McCoy, in eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, as the western boundary of the half-breed tract, specified in the tenth article of the treaty made between commissioners on the part of the United States, and certain Indian tribes at Prairie du Chien, on the fifteenth of July, eighteen hundred and thirty, be, and the same is hereby, established as the true western boundary of said tract.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That all the ruling and binding for the several executive departments shall be executed by practical and competent bookbinders, to be appointed by the head of the department.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States cause the sum of six thousand dollars to be advanced to Clark Mills, in addition to the sum already advanced out of the fifty thousand dollars appropriated by the act of January twenty-five, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, to erect at the Capitol of the nation, an Equestrian Statue of Washington, on the personal application and receipt of the said Mills: Provided, that the said Mills furnish the Secretary of the Interior such security for the completion of the statue as the Secretary may require.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of State be, and he is hereby, authorized to adjust, upon principles of equity and justice, the accounts of I. D. Andrews, late agent of the United States, for expenses and disbursements in connection with the Reciprocity Treaty, and that the same be paid according to said adjustment.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That the Collectors of the Customs in the several collection districts be, and they are hereby and hereafter, required to act as disbursing agents for the payment of all moneys that are or may hereafter be appropriated for the construction of Custom-Houses, Court-Houses, Post-Offices, and Marine Hospitals, with such compensation, not exceeding one quarter of one per cent, as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem equitable and just: And provided further, That where there is no collector at the place of location of any public work herein specified, the superintendent of such public work shall act as dis-
DISBURSE THE SAME WITHOUT ADDITIONAL PAY; AND ALL LAWS AND PARTS OF LAWS IN CONFLICT WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION BE, AND THE SAME ARE, HEREBY REPEALED.

SEC. 18. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, THAT IN ALL CASES OF JUDGMENTS AND DECREES, IN ANY TERRITORIAL COURT OF THE UNITED STATES NOW RENDERED, OR HEREAFTER TO BE RENDERED, AND FROM WHICH THERE MIGHT BE A WRIT OF ERROR, OR APPEAL TO THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES, THERE MAY BE PRESENTED SUCH WRIT OF ERROR, OR APPEAL WITHIN THE TIME, AND UNDER THE OTHER RESTRICTIONS LIMITED BY LAW TO SAID SUPREME COURT, NOTWITHSTANDING SUCH TERRITORY MAY, AFTER SUCH JUDGMENTS AND DECREES HAVE BEEN ADMITTED INTO THE UNION AS A STATE, AND SAID SUPREME COURT SHALL, WHEN THE SAME IS DECIDED, DIRECT THE MANDATE TO SUCH COURT AS THE NATURE OF THE WRIT OF ERROR OR APPEAL, IN THEIR JUDGMENT MAY REQUIRE.

SEC. 20. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, THAT ALL DIPLOMATIC AND SALARIED CONSULAR OFFICERS WHO WERE APPOINTED UNDER THE ACT ENTITLED "AN ACT TO REMODEL THE DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR SYSTEMS OF THE UNITED STATES," APPROVED MARCH THE FIRST EIGHTEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-FIVE, SHALL HAVE THE SAME COMPENSATION DURING THE TIME NECESSARILY OCCUPIED IN MAKING THE TRANSIT TO, AND RETURNING FROM THEIR RESPECTIVE POSTS OF DUTY.

APPROVED, JUNE 12, 1858.
