Laying of track and paving.

SEC. 2. That in the manner of laying its tracks, and paving the same, this company shall be under the control of the executive authority of the District of Columbia; and it shall pave its tracks, and the spaces between them, and for the space of two feet beyond the outer line thereof, and keep the same in good order, without expense to the United States or the District of Columbia; and that said pavement shall be as prescribed by the said executive authority of the District of Columbia; and the rate of fare charged and received by said company shall not exceed five cents a passenger for any distance between the termini of said road.

Rate of fare.

Use of navy-yard bridge.

SEC. 3. That whenever the present navy-yard bridge shall be replaced by a structure suitable for the passage of a street-railroad, the company shall have the right to cross over the same to Uniontown, under such restrictions and regulations as Congress may provide; and Uniontown shall then become the eastern terminus of the road; and from Uniontown the company may extend their road by the Good Hope road to the District line; and for riding over this extension of the road the company may charge an additional fare not exceeding five cents.

Extension of road east of Uniontown.

Right to alter or amend act.

SEC. 4. That Congress may, at any time, alter, amend, or repeal this act.

Approved, February 18, 1875.
