CHAP. 266.—An Act Authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to remove the quarantine station now situated at Fort Morgan, Alabama, to Sand Island, near the entrance of the port of Mobile, Alabama, and to construct thereon a new quarantine station.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to cause to be constructed on a site now owned by the United States Government on Sand Island, near the entrance of the port of Mobile, Alabama, a quarantine station at a cost for station, dredging, and all other improvements and appurtenances provided for by this Act not exceeding $300,000, which amount is hereby authorized to be appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated; and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby further authorized to accept title for and on behalf of the United States to such additional lands on Sand Island as may be ceded by the State of Alabama to the United States for use as a national quarantine station as aforesaid.

Sec. 2. That the said quarantine station shall include such wharves, bulkheads, buildings and equipment, water supply, electric-lighting system, telephone cable, heating and sewage systems, and the dredging of a channel leading to the proposed wharves, and such other facilities as may be deemed necessary by the Secretary of the Treasury for the proper operation of a quarantine station: Provided, That $40,000 of the amount herein authorized to be appropriated may be used for miscellaneous furnishing and equipment.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and is hereby, authorized to transfer and remove such furniture, equipment, articles, and materials as may be useful in the construction and equipment of the new quarantine station at Sand Island, Alabama, from the quarantine station now maintained at Fort Morgan, Alabama, and make such disposition of the buildings, site, and equipment at Fort Morgan, Alabama, at such time and on such terms as he may deem to be to the best interests of the Government.

CHAP. 268.—An Act Granting to certain claimants the preference right to purchase unappropriated public lands.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior, in his judgment and discretion, is hereby authorized to sell, in the manner hereinafter provided, any of those lands situated in the State of Louisiana which were originally erroneously meandered and shown upon the official plats as water-covered areas.
and which are not lawfully appropriated by a qualified settler or entryman claiming under the public lands laws.

That any citizen of the United States who, or whose ancestors in title in good faith under color of title or claiming as a riparian owner has, prior to this Act, placed valuable improvements upon or reduced to cultivation any of the lands subject to the operation of this Act, shall have a preferred right to file in the office of the register and receiver of the United States land office of the district in which the lands are situated, an application to purchase the lands thus improved by them at any time within ninety days from the date of the passage of this Act if the lands have been surveyed and plats filed in the United States land office; otherwise within ninety days from official notice to such claimant of the filing of such plats.
Every such application must be accompanied with satisfactory proof that the applicant is entitled to such preference right and that the lands which he applies to purchase are not in the legal possession of an adverse claimant or in the actual possession of a
