Volume 81, Number 5

About Talking Book Topics

Talking Book Topics is published bimonthly in audio, large-print, and online formats and distributed at no cost to individuals who are blind or have a physical disability and participate in the Library of Congress reading program. It lists digital audiobooks and magazines available through a network of cooperating libraries and covers news of developments and activities in network library services.

The annotated list in this issue is limited to titles recently added to the national collection, which contains thousands of fiction and nonfiction titles, including bestsellers, classics, biographies, romance novels, mysteries, and how-to guides. Some books in Spanish are also available. To explore the wide range of books in the national collection, access the NLS International Union Catalog online at loc.gov/nls or contact your local cooperating library.

Talking Book Topics is available online in HTML at www.loc.gov/nls/tbt and in downloadable audio files on the NLS Braille and Audio Reading Download (BARD) service at <http://nlsbard.loc.gov/>.

The following announcements may be of interest to readers. The National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped reserves the right to publish announcements selectively, as space permits. The items mentioned, however, are not part of the NLS program and their listings do not imply endorsement.

TBT* and BBR now available through NFB-NEWSLINE

Patrons may now access audio versions of Talking Book Topics (TBT) and Braille Book Review (BBR) through NFB-NEWSLINE, a free audible information service provided by the National Federation of the Blind. Once they register for NFB-NEWSLINE, patrons will find the NLS publications under the Blindness Specific sub-category of Magazines. Each annotation is listed as a separate article, allowing patrons to easily navigate the magazines in search of relevant titles. If a patron decides a book is of interest, he or she may press #9 to have its annotation e-mailed to him or her for later reference.

For more information or to register for NFB-NEWSLINE, visit www.nfbnewsline.org or call 1-866-504-7300.

Books for Adults

Books listed in this issue of Talking Book Topics were recently sent to cooperating libraries. The complete collection contains a wide range of fiction and nonfiction books, including biographies, classics, westerns, mysteries, romances, and others.

Registered users can also immediately download all titles and magazines from the NLS Braille and Audio Reading Download (BARD) service at <http://nlsbard.loc.gov/>. The free BARD Mobile app is available from Apple's App store for reading audio and braille books on a personal iPhone, iPad, or iPod touch. To learn more about the collection or to sign up for BARD service contact your local cooperating library. Regional library telephone numbers are listed on the last pages of this magazine.

These books are listed alphabetically within the headings Adult Fiction and Adult Nonfiction by subject category, author last name, and title. For example the title War and Peace by Leo Tolstoy would be listed in Adult Fiction under the Classics subject category and by the last name Tolstoy.

Note: A notice may appear immediately following the book description to indicate occurrences of violence, strong language, or descriptions of sex. The word "some" before any of these terms indicates an occasional or infrequent occurrence, as in "some strong language." Commercial audiobooks for which NLS does not have access to the print book may display the notice "unrated," which means that the book may or may not contain violence, strong language, or descriptions of sex.
