

“The Spiwrk ‘ Collection of Documents on The Armenian Secret
Army for the Liberation of Armenia [ASALA] and Videos and Recordings on ASALA and on the Karabakh Movement”

Compiled by
Dickran Khodanian
Near East Section Intern, 2016

The Near East Section
African and Middle Eastern Division
The Library of Congress
Washington, DC 20540

Preface

In 2015 the Overseas Operations Office of the Library of Congress in Cairo, Egypt, acquired for the Armenian collections of the Near East Section from the Lebanese Armenian newspaper, Spiwrk ' an important collection of documents and videos relating to ASALA [the Armenian Secret Army for the Liberation of Armenia] and videos relating to the Karabakh Movement of the late 1980s and early 1990s. The videos had been labelled but the documents were received in no particular order.

In late Summer of 2016, following a Leo Sarkisian internship with the Armenian National Committee of America, Inc., Mr. Dickran Khodanian volunteered his services to the Near East Section. As this collection was a top priority, we asked him to arrange these vital records. Working with staff in the Near East Section and with the Conservation Division to assure their preservation, Mr. Khodanian carefully evaluated and arranged the documents and DVDs and created this detailed guide to aid researchers in their use.

Please note that we have chosen to retain the descriptions of the documents and the videos provided by the editors at Spiwrk '. Note that all proper names have been transliterated into Western Armenians by those editors, even those of Armenians where Eastern Armenian is used.
