

Hebraic Section, AMED Division
Hebrew Language Table
Present

LAWRENCE
AND AARONSOHN

T.E. Lawrence, Aaron Aaronsohn, and the Seeds of the Arab-Israeli Conflict

How an obscure British second-lieutenant and a Jewish agronomist from Palestine shaped the map and attitudes of the modern Middle East Lecture by author Ronald Florence

Monday, December 3, 2007 - 12:00 Noon
Mary Pickford Theater
James Madison Building
Library of Congress

Ronald Florence is an historian and novelist, the author of eight previous books including The Gypsy Man, The Perfect Machine and Blood Libel. Educated at the University of California at Berkeley and at Harvard University, where he received a Ph.D. in European history, Florence has traveled extensively in Europe and the Middle East to research and explore the locations of his books. He taught at Harvard, Sarah Lawrence College and the State University of New York.

Request ADA accommodations 5 days in advance
(202) 707-6362 TTY or ADA@loc.gov
For more information call Gail Shirazi 202-707-9897
Program is free and open to the public