AMERICANS TO STAY IN SIBERIA SOME TIME YET

Kokusai Associated Press

WASHINGTON, January 9—It is officially stated that the American troops will not be withdrawn from Siberia until the Czecho-Slovaks have been repatriated, which will require several months. The American railway commission has departed.

BULGARS RATIFY PEACE TREATY

Revolutionary Movement Commenced in Bulgaria—Royal Family Held Prisoners

Kokusai Direct

PARIS, January 10—The Grand Sobranje of Bulgaria has ratified the treaty.

Bulgaria's Turn Now

Nichi Nichi Service

LONDON, January 10—According to a despatch from Petrograd, the strike of the railway employes in Bulgaria has given rise to a revolutionary movement which is rapidly spreading throughout the country. All the large bridges have been blown up by the strikers and fresh legions of the latter were shot dead by the authorities.

This gave great advantage to the masses and resulted in a disastrous clash between the troops and strikers. The troops attacked the strikers with machine-guns with the result that many of the latter were killed and injured. The King and family have been held prisoners in the palace during the last fortnight and the people are loudly clamoring for the abdication of the King.

WHY CZECHS HAD TO SEIZE RAILWAY

General Syrovy Explains in Circular Telegram Actions Which Led to an "Ultimatum"

After the "ultimatum" addressed by Aramon Bandesson to the Czech General in charge of the Czecho-Slovak forces in Siberia, in which the Generals accused the Czechs of blocking the railroad, holding up trains running through the Czech zone, and then "cutting off the retreating Siberian army from headquarters," which received a stinging reply from General Syrovy, various appeals were addressed to General Syrovy by different military leaders and by even opposing political parties, to the same effect. In reply to these, the Czech commander-in-chief addressed the following communication to the Allied generals in Siberia:

Proposing to Leave Siberia

"The following is my reply to a series of telegrams that have been sent by various Russian authorities. According to decision arrived at by the inter-Allied representatives, the Czecho-Slovak army is returning to the motherland. The leading chiefs of this army having been ordered to provide the necessary tonnage for this purpose. If the Czecho-Slovak forces fail to reach Vladivostok the Czecho-Slovak republic will sustain great pecuniary loss, and therefore work in connection with their evacuation is going on briskly. The latest orders received from the Czecho-Slovak Government demand its acceleration.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS BEGINS TOMORROW

Bourgeoisie Will Call Members Together, President Wilson Losing Opportunity

DISARMAMENT FIRST SAYS LEAGUE FRAMER

Lord Robert Cecil Outlines What Should Be Done to Make the League Real

Nippon Dempo Service

PARIS, January 10—It was announced at the meeting of the Supreme Council today that the inaugural meeting of the League of Nations Council will be convened here on Friday, the sixteenth. M. Bourgeoisie, who has been chosen as first President of the League of Nations, will preside, in default of the American ratification of the Treaty, which provided that the President should call the first meeting of the Council and preside over it pending permanent organization.

It is believed that Mr. Lloyd George will be elected as the President of the Peace Conference when it is regularly reassumed.

To Vitalize the League

Nichi Nichi Service

LONDON, January 10—Lord Robert Cecil, representing the League of Nations Association, has issued the following statement:

"Now that the League of Nations has become an accomplished fact, the question whether it is going to be a League of Nations in a real sense of the phrase, or nothing but a bogus institution, will depend upon the attitude of the nations composing the League, especially of the British nation.

"The League must not hesitate to make use a plan for the reduction of armaments among its members, the terms of the mandatory administrations should be fixed and mandatories appointed, and an international court of arbitration should be established.

"The moment these provisions have been fulfilled, to permit which the European crisis must be relieved, the imperfections of the economic clauses of the Peace Treaty should be rectified, and the enemy countries should be induced to join the League of Nations.

FIRE GOD DESTROYED BY ANGRY FLAMES

Fudo Failed to Save Himself and His Temple From Destruction

MEIJI MIDDLE SCHOOL COMPLETELY GUTTED

Considerable Portion of Camp Hill Section of Yokohama Wiped Out

In the Tokugawa days the advent of the "hero" or eldest season of winter brought with it a frequency of fires, which was regarded as the "Flower of Yeddo." The advent of motor facilities, super fire trucks and modern fire fighting appliances have in a measure cut down the frequency of sweeping conflagrations until they are almost a thing of the past and the belief in the necessity of the "Flower of Yeddo" has grown less prominent.

Tuesday night and Wednesday morning were however an exception to the general prevailing rule and high winds helped fire to play havoc in Tokyo and Yokohama and, in a measure, to recall the Tokugawa days and the "Flower of Yeddo."

Temple of Fudo Burned

So fierce indeed was the demon of flames that he did not even respect the temple of the Fire God in Tokyo and today the temple of Fudo—the God who is popularly believed to be protector against the angry element of fire—is a heap of ashes and the image of the wood-deity is numbered among the things destroyed.

Shortly after midnight the priest in charge of the temple of Fudo was awakened by a suffocating smoke and hastily escaped from the building, which was already in flames, with his life. The surrounding were conquering victors.

The temple of Fudo, which is located at Shiba, Shibuya, was 40 by 40 feet and dedicated to the deity who is believed to be the protector against fire.

The flames succeeded in preventing the flames from spreading to the adjoining properties.

In exchange for abandoning her exclusive jurisdiction over these ports, Italy is to receive Istria and the strategic islands flanking the Istrian and Dalmatian coasts.

CAILLAUX FACING TRIAL FOR TREASON

Former Premier Brought Before the Bar Just Two Years After His Arrest

ALLEGED ACCOMPLICE OF BOLO PASHA

Charged With Attempting to Force France to Accept a Peace of Defeat

Yesterday, according to advance announcement from Paris, the trial of Joseph Caillaux, once Premier of France, was begun on a charge of high treason. The evidence is to be presented in substantiation of the charge was gathered on three continents, Europe and North and South America, and the trial promises to be most sensational, involving high names and important interests.

Caillaux was arrested two years ago, on January 14, the arrest producing a great sensation. For twenty years and more, Caillaux, Premier of France, Finish political life, both as Premier and Minister of Finance. He has expressed his determination to "fight to the last ditch" although his long detention has made inroads upon his health. After a preliminary hearings, he protested in vain against the long delay. Last September Caillaux was removed from his Paris prison to a hospital at Neuilly.

The case against Caillaux is somewhat related to that against Bolo Pasha, who was executed at Vincennes on a spy in April, 1918, and M. Duval, editor of the Germanophile newspaper Bonnet Rouge, who went to his death for similar treachery the following July.

The Calmette Shooting

Caillaux was not in the cabinet when the war began. He resigned shortly after March 16, 1914, the day his wife shot and killed Gaston Calmette, editor of Figaro, for accusing Caillaux of having played into Germany's hands in soliciting the Mirbeau crisis of 1911. Louis J. Malvy, a close friend, was Minister of the Interior at the time Caillaux resigned. Malvy, it will be remembered, was later accused of high treason and tried in 1918 before the Senate High Court. The treason charge was re-

CHINESE BEGINNINGS

View of Green Island, Macau, 1844. George West was the official artist attached to U.S. Minister Caleb Cushing's delegation during negotiation of the first U.S. treaty with China in 1844. During Cushing's five-month stay in the Portuguese territory of Macau on China's southern coast, West sketched and painted numerous local scenes. In this watercolor, West shows Green

Chinese books played a central role in the development of the Library's Asian language collection during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. In fact, the Library's first special unit to take care of Asian holdings, established in 1928, was called the "Division of Chinese Literature." How did the Library's Chinese collection begin?

A good starting point is February 23, 1844, when the USS Brandywine dropped anchor in Macau's harbor, on China's southern coast. The Brandywine's arrival attracted more than usual attention in the Portuguese colony, for aboard was the first U.S. Minister to China, Caleb Cushing. A politician and lawyer, Cushing had been appointed by President Tyler to negotiate the Treaty of Wang hsia, which would give the United States the same trading privileges China had granted Great Britain only two years earlier in the Treaty of Nanking.

Cushing intended to proceed on to Peking but the Chinese insisted he
