Collection Summary

Title: Papers of S. R. Shapiro
Span Dates: 1895-1982
Creator: Shapiro, S. R. (Solomon Reuben), 1911-1990
Size: 3,200 items; 32 containers plus 4 oversize and 1 restricted
Depository: Rare Book and Special Collections Division, Library of Congress
Abstract: Solomon R. Shapiro was a New York City bookseller, who developed a close personal relationship with American book designer Bruce Rogers and became an expert on the books that he designed. The papers consist of correspondence, financial records, and other items which document Shapiro's bookselling activities, while also illuminating the career of Rogers during his later years.

Administrative Information

Provenance: The papers of S. R. Shapiro, New York bookseller, were given to the Library of Congress by Shapiro in 1973 and 1984.

Processing History: A description of the 1973 portion of the Shapiro papers, as well as the collection of trade books given to the Library in 1959 (cataloged separately), appears in Special Collections in the Library of Congress (Washington : Library of Congress, 1980), p. 300. A separate inventory list for the materials received in 1984, prepared by William Matheson, is available in the files of the Rare Book and Special Collections Division.

Copyright Status: The status of copyright in the unpublished writings of Solomon R. Shapiro is governed by the Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, U.S.C.)

Preferred Citation: Researchers wishing to cite this collection should include the following information: S. R. Shapiro Papers, Rare Book and Special Collections Division, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

Scope and Content Note

The papers of S. R. Shapiro (1911-1990) span the years 1895-1982, with the bulk of the material dating from 1950-1957. The papers are organized into the following series: Shapiro Correspondence, Bruce Rogers, Miscellany, Printed Matter, Oversize, and Restricted..

The first section comprises the correspondence received by Shapiro, primarily from clients. It also includes extensive correspondence from Bruce Rogers, as well as other notable Americans such as Rockwell Kent and Stanley Marcus, and correspondence from major libraries in the United States.

The Bruce Rogers series focuses on publications designed by Bruce Rogers, especially those from the 1950's, although it covers his entire career, including the Riverside Press period (1896-1912). There are drafts of Rogers's writings Pi and the unpublished E-pistoleary letter's to my co-respondents, as well as Rogers's correspondence to individuals other than Shapiro. It includes numerous lists of Rogers-designed items (including items previously unattributed to him), as well as preparatory materials and purchase orders for writings by Shapiro on Rogers.

Miscellany focuses on the business as well as personal activities of Shapiro. It principally includes financial records, purchase orders and tax forms for the period 1950-1952. It also includes materials on the writings of Shapiro that are not focused on Rogers. Some biographical information is also present.

Printed Matter includes auction, dealer, and publisher catalogs collected by Shapiro that list items designed by Rogers. Other periodicals contain articles both about Rogers and the books that he designed. This section also includes an assortment of prospectuses, primarily to Rogers's books, as well as miscellaneous ephemera.

Oversize includes printer's proofs to Modern Art, as well as miscellaneous slipcases to books designed by Bruce Rogers.

Restricted consists of realia belonging to Shapiro, such as the wood block used for his bookplate.
