

RARE BOOK AND SPECIAL COLLECTIONS DIVISION

PRESENTS

PABLO NERUDA IN THE HEART OF THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

Neruda scholar and collector Bill Fisher will address Neruda's relationship with the Library of Congress, especially with the Librarian of Congress Archibald Macleish and Francisco Aguilera of the Hispanic Division, who played a role in introducing Neruda to English speaking readers. Notable items from Rare Book & Special Collections, including a rare copy of España en el Corazón that Neruda chronicled in his memoirs, will illustrate the talk. Attendees will be able to view the books following the lecture.

Thursday, July 9, 2015, 3:00 p.m.

Rosenwald Room, LJ 205

Jefferson Building

Free and Open to the Public

Request ADA accommodation five business days in advance Contact (202) 707-6362 or ADA@loc.gov. For further information, please call 202-707-6253.