MAGNA-BRITANNIA, or the Colonies REDUC'D.

EXPLANATION

The above Picture is a Symbol of what would be the Misfortune of Great Britain and her Colonies, if those British, who are now the Masters of it, should not, by the late Measures, check the Excess of their Ambition.

The Nation, which had with Vigour, and Fortune obtained to herself, has now, under the Character of its People, the late Flurishing State of Great Britain, in the South of Europe, and America, with its Fleet into the Ocean, to defend her Empire. The British Prince, who possessed the Crown of England, was deprived of it by the Protestants, and in Turn, the Empire of the British Prince by the French, who now hold it, and are determined to keep it.

The British People, who were the Masters of Europe, are now reduced to a Condition of Slavery, and are subject to the Power of the British People, who hold the Dominions of Great Britain.

The Moral of this Picture is this: It is easy to see, how the People are disposed to follow the example of the British, who have been the Masters of Europe, and are now reduced to a Condition of Slavery.

Library of Congress
http://www.loc.gov/teachers