MARTIN LUTHER KING....AT COMMUNIST TRAINING SCHOOL

The above picture was made by an employee of the State of Georgia, at the Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee during the Labor Day week-end of 1957. The photographer was sent to the Highlander Folk School by the Georgia Commission on Education. The Highlander Folk School was abolished by an act of the Legislature of the State of Tennessee at a later date because it was charged with being a subversive organization.

Those numbered in the picture are:

1. Martin Luther King, Jr., of the Montgomery boycott and the Birmingham riots. Karl Prusson, a counter spy for the FBI for twenty-two years, charges that Martin Luther King belongs to sixty Communist-front organizations — more than any Communist in the United States.

2. Abner W. Berry of the Central Committee of the Communist Party.

3. Aubrey Williams, President of the Southern Conference Education Fund, Inc., The Transmission Belt in the South for the Communist Party.

4. Myles Horton, Director of Highlander Folk School for Communist Training, Monteagle, Tennessee.

These "Four Horsemen" of racial agitation have brought tension, disturbance, strife and violence in their advancement of the Communist doctrine of "racial nationalism."
The Cincinnati Enquirer
Sunday, June 5, 1966

Cincinnati Pastor Named As Head Of ‘Red Front’

By Jack Lotto
One of the top leaders of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in the South has been named head of a new, radical Communist front.

The Rev. Fred L. Shuttlesworth, pastor of the Revolutionary Baptist Church, is the new leader.

Shuttlesworth is a well-known civil rights activist and a past member of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). He is known for his activism in the civil rights movement and his role in the Montgomery bus boycott in 1955.

Shuttlesworth was instrumental in organizing the SCLC's first freedom rides in 1961, which challenged segregation on interstate buses.

His appointment as head of the new Communist front is significant, as it marks a shift in the direction of left-wing politics in the United States. The new organization, which is called the Southern Conference of Hispanic American Christians (SCHC), aims to promote the interests of Hispanic Americans and challenge existing power structures.

Shuttlesworth's appointment is likely to be met with both support and criticism. Some will see it as a positive step towards addressing the needs of Hispanic Americans, while others may view it as a threat to the stability of American politics.无论如何, Shuttlesworth's leadership will be closely watched by both supporters and opponents of the new organization.

Claude Lightfoot, a leading Communist speaker, will be a vocal proponent of the new organization. He has already stated that the movement will focus on issues of race, class, and gender, and will work to create a new society based on equality and justice.

Shuttlesworth, who is 70 years old, has been a prominent figure in the civil rights movement for many years. He was one of the organizers of the Selma to Montgomery march in 1965 and has continued to be active in the movement ever since.

His appointment as head of the new organization is a significant development in the ongoing struggle for civil rights and social justice in the United States.