I Importance of the occasion
II - Solid plan without regard to temporary opinions
III - If an ineffectual plan be again proposed, it will begot distrust in no government will grow out of consternation

There seem to be but three lines of conduct.

I A League offensive and defensive, treaty of commerce, or apportionment of the public debt.

II An amendment of the present confederation by adding such powers as the public mind seems near if not being matured to grant.

III - The forming a new government to pervade the whole with decisive power in short with complete sovereignty.
