

THE WORKERS' ANVIL.

Words by Laura M. Griffing.
ALLEGRO.

Arranged by
C. F. Mayering.

Sea.....

Sea.....Toco.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1878, by W. D. GRIFFING, in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, D. C.

Strike, strike, the Work - ers an vil, For. the cause of Strike, strike, the fire is.. glow - ing— Heed ye not the Guard, guard the right, com-pan - - ions; 'Tis a phan tom Hail, hail, ye broth - er work - men, Fierce and sharp the Sound, sound the la - - bor toc - - sin, For our homes are

La - - - bor. Strike for your homes and free - dom, min - - - ions, Seek ing to cap ture La. bor,
pow - - er, From civ ic rule de scend ing,
bat - - tle; Make life a glor ious tri umph
cheer - - less; Stay not, for Just - ice guides you

For each friend and neigh - - - bor. Ev' ry one.
And to clip the pin - - - ions Of our clan.
To de-spoil our dow - - - er. Will you come?
Let the vol - - leys rat - - - tle Loud and deep.
Be ye strong and fear - - - less. Guard your right!

For this great cause And re-form laws, Now demand com-
 Will you grant all At the first call, And sub-mit to
 Are you all strong, - To fight the wrong, And ad-vance the Take a bold stand, - Through-out the land, Thus to guard the
 If you dare, do! And all be true— You will gain a tr Fine.

 plete pro --- tec --- tion.
 par --- ty fac --- tions.
 cause of la --- bor.
 rights of free --- men. glo --- rious vic --- tory.

S Last time.
f
 MEYER, Printer.