

The Library of Congress

VETERANS
HISTORY PROJECT

The Veterans History Project collects and preserves personal stories and other original materials from America's war veterans.

The United States Congress created the Veterans History Project (VHP) in 2000 as part of the American Folklife Center at the Library of Congress, one of the world's most respected research and cultural institutions.

VHP's purpose is to collect, preserve and make accessible the personal accounts of America's wartime veterans so that future generations may hear directly from veterans and better understand their selfless service.

Who — Veterans who served in the United States military, in any capacity, from World War I through recent conflicts are eligible to participate, regardless of branch or rank. As contributors to this national preservation effort, volunteers from around the country interview veterans and collect first person narratives. Any individual or organization may participate, including veterans' family members and friends age 15 or older, high school and university educators, authors, veterans' service organizations, places of worship, retirement communities, Scout troops, local businesses and professional associations. Loved ones of deceased veterans may submit their veteran's first person narratives.

What — VHP accepts veterans' personal narratives in the forms of original, unedited audio- and video-recorded interviews, photographs, letters, diaries, journals, military documents, two-dimensional artwork, maps and unpublished memoirs that meet minimum requirements. VHP also welcomes video and audio recordings of the impact of their loved one's service from Gold Star family members, defined as a parent, spouse, sibling or child of a member of the Armed Forces who became missing in action or who died of injuries as a result of their wartime service.

When — Any day is a good day to share, record or submit a veteran's story. Begin today. No matter when a veteran shares his or her story, the legal copyright belongs to the veteran, making VHP a safe place to preserve these accounts.

Where — Conduct VHP interviews in any quiet, indoor location such as a home, office or conference room.

Why — Researchers, scholars and educators rely upon VHP collections as a primary source. These oral histories, photographs, manuscripts and other original materials are a rich supplement to historical texts, and a valued cultural resource. Veterans' family members treasure the memories that are permanently preserved at the Library of Congress for future generations. To view materials in the reading room, please contact VHP at least 10 days in advance to schedule an appointment to research or view collections on site. Email vohp@loc.gov or call 202-707-4916.

How — First, contact the veteran to conduct a pre-interview, so that you can gather details about their military service and determine which questions to ask during the recorded interview session. Then, go to our website, www.loc.gov/vets, and print one of the lists of suggested interview questions that best matches your veteran's service. Afterward, sit down with the veteran and conduct a video- or audio-recorded interview. You may also submit a collection of original photographs or documents that tell the veteran's story from his or her perspective, even if the veteran is deceased or unable to share an oral history. Remember to submit original materials only and follow the 30-20-10 Rule (p.3).

Continue reading this entire Field Kit for details on how to prepare (p.2), how to participate (p.3), how to submit collections (p.4), how to access collections (p.5) and how to get more information (p.5).

New Initiative: You may also bring your veteran to the Library of Congress and interview them on-site using our equipment. Contact VHP to schedule an appointment.

If you have questions, contact the toll-free message line at 1-888-371-5848 or email vohp@loc.gov. Visit VHP online at www.loc.gov/vets.

Participating in the Veterans History Project is easy to do. Read this entire Field Kit, and follow each step to ensure your submission meets all requirements. Use this checklist as you proceed.

- Step I: Prepare
- Step II: Participate
- Step III: Submit
- Step IV: Access
- Step V: Inquire

Step I: Prepare

Whether you are a veteran or a volunteer/interviewer, preparation is vital. You significantly increase the research value of a collection when you take the time to familiarize yourself with the VHP process and conduct a pre-interview to gather background information before participating.

All participants:

- Visit the VHP website, www.loc.gov/vets.
- View the instructional video.
- Read responses to the Frequently Asked Questions.
- Search the veterans' collections database to familiarize yourself with how information is captured.
- Access and subscribe to VHP's social media sites:
→ Blog: <http://blogs.loc.gov/folklife/category/veterans-history-project/> → Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/vetshistoryproject> → RSS: <http://www.loc.gov/rss/vhp/vhp.xml>
- Review updated media and format standards. Technology changes frequently!
- Print additional forms and Field Kits if needed.

Veterans:

- Complete the Biographical Data Form (p.7) and Veteran's Release Form (p.9).
- Search your home for photographs that may help you share your story (p.14).
- Search your home for documents that may help you share your story, or help you write an unpublished memoir (p.15).

Volunteers/Interviewers:

- Conduct a pre-interview with the veteran by phone or in person to review forms and gather details about their military service, so that you may determine which questions to ask during the recorded interview session.
- Go to our website, www.loc.gov/vets, and print one of the lists of suggested interview questions that best matches the veteran's service.
- Think of additional interview questions that are specific to the veteran's personal experience, war/conflict, branch, background, etc., and write them down.
- Complete the Interviewer's Release Form (p.10), and all other required forms (p.11–15).
- Secure a quiet, indoor location for the interview.
- Test equipment for sound and lighting before each interview.
- Carefully review the Accepted Media and Format Standards list (p.16).

Step II: Participate

Participation is easy! All you need to participate are a willing veteran, a recording device, external microphones if you have them, a volunteer interviewer who is age 15 or older, the forms in this Field Kit and a list of suggested interview questions from our website.

All participants:

- Ensure audio- and video-recordings are at least 30 minutes or longer, and unedited.
- Submit only original materials to VHP.
- Keep a copy of all recordings, forms and other materials and provide copies to the veteran.
- In addition, keep a digital file for at least one year.

Veterans:

- Share your story with a friend, loved one or community volunteer who will record a conversation about your military experiences; and/or
- Contribute a collection of original photographs, letters or military correspondence; and/or
- Donate your unpublished, original memoir.
- Sign the Veteran's Release form no matter which way you choose to participate. This gives us permission to place your name and collection online, and explains your copyright retention.

Volunteers/Interviewers:

- Interview a veteran in your family or community using an audio- or video-recording device. Remember to first conduct a pre-interview, and then print a list of suggested interview questions from our website. See p.16 for a list of acceptable media and recording formats.
- Collect a veteran's original photographs, letters and other historical documents in addition to, or instead of, conducting a recorded interview.
- Sign the Interviewer's Release form. This gives us permission to place your name and the veteran's collection online, and explains your copyright retention.
- Remember to submit only original materials.
- Follow the 30-20-10 Rule. Materials that fail to meet at least one of the following minimum requirements will be dispositioned (returned to the contributor).
 - 30 minutes is the minimum length required for audio- or video-recorded interviews and/or
 - 20 pages is the minimum number of pages required for memoirs, diaries or journals
and/or
 - 10 is the minimum number of photographs, letters, maps or pieces of artwork and the minimum number of pages required for military documents
- Complete all required forms (p.11–15).

Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts of America:

- Email vohp@loc.gov before you write your Eagle Scout or Gold Star proposal, or conduct any interviews. You will then receive special participation, submission and approval instructions.

Step III: Submit

Make two copies of the interview and other materials prior to submitting a collection. Keep one copy for yourself and give one to the veteran. To avoid damages caused by the Library of Congress' special security screening process, do not use the U.S. Postal Service. Place your items in a box, enclose a cover letter (p.6) and use one of the following submission options.

The Library of Congress
Veterans History Project
101 Independence Avenue, SE
Washington, DC 20540-4615

Ship via commercial carrier	Hand-deliver	Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts of America
(e.g., FedEx, UPS, etc.) Do not pay extra for expedited service. Use "Ground" or the least expensive delivery option.	Email vohp@loc.gov or call 202-707-4916 in advance to schedule your visit so a VHP staff member can meet you.	Enclose your final approval signature page, and add Attn.: Scouting Program to the shipping label.

What Happens Next?

Once your materials are received, they will go through the following process, which may take up to six to eight months.

- 1. Review — VHP staff will review your materials to ensure they meet minimum requirements. Materials that do not meet VHP's minimum requirements will be returned to the contributor within eight to 10 weeks.
- 2. Acknowledgement — VHP staff will acknowledge receipt of your materials via postcard within eight to 10 weeks. Scouts should allow one week for a staff member to acknowledge receipt, and allow four to six weeks for final approval signature.
- 3. Data Entry — VHP staff will enter details about the veteran and the materials into an internal collections database, which is used for inventory and research purposes.
- 4. Archiving — VHP staff will carefully label, preserve and store your materials in a temperature- and moisture-controlled environment to ensure they will not degrade.
- 5. Creation of Online Record — VHP staff will create an online record for every veteran, accessible through a search of the online database at www.loc.gov/vets. In addition to the veteran's name and details about his or her military service, the online record also will include the contributor's name and organizational affiliation. Currently due to funding considerations, not every collection is digitized. Collections that include digitized content are identified by a "VIEW DIGITIZED COLLECTION" button.

Step IV: Access

Researchers may access VHP collections either online at www.loc.gov/vets, or by appointment in-person at the Library of Congress. Schedule your visit at least 10 working days in advance by email at vohp@loc.gov or call 202-707-4916.

To be Completed by Veteran (In cases of deceased veterans, to be completed by the donor of the material.)

I, _____, am a participant in the Veterans History Project (hereinafter "VHP") of the Library of Congress American Folklife Center. I understand that the purpose of the VHP is to collect audio- and video-recorded oral histories of America's war veterans, as well as selected related documentary materials such as photographs and manuscripts, for inclusion in the permanent collections of the Library of Congress. These oral histories and related materials serve as a record of American veterans' wartime experiences and as a scholarly and educational resource for Congress and the general public.

I understand that the American Folklife Center plans to retain the product of my participation in the VHP, including but not limited to my interview, presentation, video, photographs, statements, name, images or likeness, voice, and written materials ("My Collection") as part of its permanent collections.

I hereby grant to the Library of Congress ownership of the physical property comprising My Collection. Additionally, I hereby grant to the Library of Congress, at no cost, the perpetual, nonexclusive, transferable, worldwide right to use, reproduce, transmit, display, perform, prepare derivative works from, distribute, and authorize the redistribution of the materials in My Collection in any medium. By giving this permission, I understand that I retain any copyright and related rights that I may hold.

I hereby release the Library of Congress, and its assignees and designees, from any and all claims and demands arising out of or in connection with the use of My Collection, including but not limited to any claims for copyright infringement, defamation, invasion of privacy, or right of publicity.

Should any part of My Collection be found to include materials that the Library of Congress deems inappropriate for retention with the collection or for transfer to other collections in the Library, the Library may dispose of such materials in accordance with its procedures for disposition of materials not needed for the Library's collections.

Manuscript Data Sheet (Required with memoirs, letters, diaries or other written materials)

Guidelines for Writing a Memoir

Typewritten, double-spaced documents are easiest for researchers to read. Spark your memory by searching your home for documents and photographs from your service days. Use the interview questions from our website as a guide for developing chapters or a table of contents to help researchers locate specific topics in your memoir.

Guidelines for Submitting Letters and Other Written Materials

Identify, by name, the writers and recipients of the letters and other documents, and their relationship to the veteran whose name appears on the Biographical Data Form (p.7). Describe the most interesting/important topics and events mentioned in the letters or documents.

Accepted Media And Format Standards

Use the highest quality recording equipment available. The Library of Congress requires submission of unedited materials in their original format. Record only one interview per media. Do not write on, add labels to or copy protect any CD or DVD. Do not modify previously created content prior to submission. Please contact vohp@loc.gov to confirm acceptability before donating material in a format other than those listed.

Recordings must be at least 30 minutes in length.

VHP accepts the following media:

- DVD-R
- CD-R
- USB (thumb/flash) drives
- Digital Video (DV) MiniDV, DVCAM, DVCPRO
- Audio Cassettes

Use the following file extensions when creating new content:

WAV (audio)	on CD-R or a USB (thumb/flash) drive Specifications: 96 kHz, 24-bit (suggested) or 44.1 kHz, 16-bit
MPEG-2/MPG (audio/video)	on DVD-R or a USB (thumb/flash) drive Specifications: the highest quality equipment allows.
MPEG-4/MP4 (video)	on DVD-R or a USB (thumb/flash) drive Specifications: the highest quality equipment allows.
MOV (video)	on DVD-R or a USB (thumb/flash) drive Specifications: the highest quality equipment allows.
TXT/RTF (text)	on CD-R, DVD-R or a USB (thumb/flash) drive
TIF/JPG (image)	on CD-R, DVD-R or a USB (thumb/flash) drive Specifications: minimum 300 ppi, 600 ppi (suggested)

Mobile Device Recordings

VHP media and format requirements are compatible with available applications on most mobile devices. Always choose a quiet, indoor location, and test device before recording. Please contact vohp@loc.gov to confirm acceptability before donating material in a format other than those listed.

For iOS Users (iPad, iPhone, iTouch)

- Use “Camera” App for video recordings
- Set default video format to MOV
- Use “Voice Memo” App for audio recordings
- Set audio quality to at least 44.1 kHz (16-bit). The 96 kHz (24-bit) setting is ideal.
- Import recordings through “iTunes”
- Submit recordings to VHP on either CD/DVD or USB (thumb/flash) drive

For Android Users

- Use “Camera” App for video recordings
- Set default video format to 3GP
- Use “Voice Recorder” App for audio recordings
- Set audio quality to at least 44.1 kHz (16-bit). The 96 kHz (24-bit) setting is ideal.
- Import recordings through USB Cable
- Submit recordings to VHP on either CD/DVD or USB (thumb/flash) drive

Visit www.loc.gov/vets for the latest, detailed mobile device recording instructions.

Do you have artifacts you wish to donate but are unable to because they are out of VHP's scope?

Visit www.loc.gov/vets/relatedrepositories.html for a list of repositories that may be willing to accept three-dimensional items such as medals, uniforms and dog tags. To ensure the safety of your collection, please contact institutions before sending materials. Some institutions maintain a specific collections focus, so please contact the museum staff, archivist or curator to learn more about their collecting policies and the kinds of materials they can or cannot accept. Neither the Veterans History Project, the American Folklife Center nor the Library of Congress can speak for other institutions' collecting policies.

"If we don't tell our story, then nobody will know what transpired."

– DONALD GRIFFITH, KOREAN WAR VETERAN

"Our students have the opportunity to leave their classrooms, go out into the community and hear firsthand accounts of combat and life during wartime from the people who actually made that history. Talk about bringing history alive!"

– EILEEN HURST, CENTRAL CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

"I cannot express how enlightening and interesting this project has been. From these people, I have learned a great deal about courage, endurance, and patriotism that I have not, and could not have, found in my own generation."

– BRADY SCHUH, EAGLE SCOUT

"It was a good thing that I sent the originals to you, or they would now be destroyed. Hurricane Katrina put 5½ feet of water in our home... so I'm glad the Library of Congress has them."

– SHIRLEY CARPENTER, WWI VETERAN'S FAMILY MEMBER

"Working as a community volunteer for the Veterans History Project, I have learned so much history, geography, and of the humble sacrifice that Americans have made."
