Entered into force December 10, 1942*

56 Stat. 1851; Executive Agreement Series 297

The American Chargé d'Affaires ad interim to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs

No. 34

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, D.R., December 9, 1942

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to refer to the Legation's note of October 30 last and to other correspondence and conversations concerning the conclusion of an agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Dominican Republic for an exchange of official publications and to express our agreement for that exchange as follows:

There shall be an exchange of official publications between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Dominican Republic, which shall be conducted in accordance with the following provisions:

1. The official exchange office for the transmission of publications of the United States of America is the Smithsonian Institution. The official exchange office on the part of the Dominican Republic is the Library of the University of Santo Domingo.
2. The publications exchanged shall be received on behalf of the United States of America by the Library of Congress; on behalf of the Dominican Republic by the Library of the University of Santo Domingo. Official publications shall be understood to include those published in printed or mimeographed form by the two Governments or their official agencies.
3. The Government of the United States shall furnish regularly one copy of each of the publications enumerated in the attached list headed "List 1". This list shall be extended to include, without the necessity of subsequent negotiation, any important publications that may be issued by any instrumentalities of the Government in the future.
4. The Government of the Dominican Republic shall furnish regularly one copy of each of the publications enumerated in the attached list headed "List 2". This list shall be extended to include, without the necessity of subsequent negotiation, any important publications that may be issued by any instrumentalities of the Government in the future.

5. With respect to instrumentalities which at this time do not issue publications and which are not mentioned in the attached lists, it is understood that important publications which they may issue in the future shall be furnished in one copy.

6. Neither Government shall be obligated by this agreement to furnish confidential publications, blank forms, or circular letters not of a public nature.

7. Each party to the agreement shall bear the postal, railroad, steamship, and other charges arising in its own country.

8. This agreement shall not be understood to modify the already existing exchange agreements between the various Government instrumentalities of the two countries.

Upon the receipt of an identical note from Your Excellency, my Government will consider that the foregoing agreement enters into effect.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest and most distinguished consideration.

MR. CHARGÉ D'AFFAIRES:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the kind note no. 34 of the 9th instant, in which you are good enough to propose to the Dominican Government an agreement for an exchange of official publications between the two Governments, on the bases and provisions which appear in the said note, the text of which reads as follows:

I have the honor likewise to inform Your Excellency that the Dominican Government accepts the foregoing provisions for the conclusion of the said agreement, which it considers concluded by the exchange of Your Excellency's above-mentioned note of the 9th instant and this note of reply.

The Dominican Government deems it well to explain that for the reason that due to present difficulties many publications which were formerly issued regularly have been discontinued, this agreement will be carried out on its part so far as its possibilities permit under the difficulties to which reference has been made.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my most distinguished consideration.

A. DESPRADEL

His Excellency

EDWARD P. LAWTON,
Chargé d'Affaires ad interim
of the United States of America,
His Legation.
