SAE MOBILUS

Join the SAE team for a live demonstration on SAE MOBILUS® technical resource platform, your source to the most authoritative collection of engineering technical papers, eBooks, journals, and edge reports. Areas include

- Workforce Development
- Advanced Manufacturing
- Advanced Materials
- Electrification
- Advanced Propulsion
- Cybersecurity
- Connectivity
- Automated and Unmanned Vehicles

Join us to learn how to

- Navigate the MOBILUS platform showcasing features such as Project Folders, Annotations and Redlining.
- Explore standards and research content available to our SAE MOBILUS subscribers,
- Thousands of current and reliable publications easily accessible from one source.

Angela Kenner, SAE Customer Success Specialist, will give a live demonstration and show the audience how to log into the MOBILUS platform, create a personalized Dashboard, save content to Project Folders, utilize the annotation and redlining features and search thousands of publications by topic/author/committee/industry.
