

FEDERAL LIBRARIANS: THE VANGUARD OF THE HYBRID INFOSPACE

FEDLINK LIBRARY OF CONGRESS FALL EXPOSITION

Wednesday, November 17, 2021 ~ 9:00am - 4:30pm (EST)

2021 Fall Expo Call

The semi-annual Fall Expo will focus on library professionals and their responses to balancing the challenges of providing virtual and onsite services with the demand for innovation and flexibility in federal library programs and project planning.

To register for the virtual
FEDLINK Fall Expo, visit

[https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/
FEDLINKFall21](https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/FEDLINKFall21)

Keynote sessions will feature

- * Operationalizing Empathy in the Workplace (9:00am-10:00am)
Shakima Tozay, Chief of Clinical Services, Fleet and Family Support Center, Naval Station Everett, Washington
- * "The only constant in life is change:" Educating Library Professionals in Today's World (1:00pm – 2:00pm)
Dr. Ursula Gorham, Director of the Master of Library and Information Science Program, College of Information Studies, University of Maryland

Plenary sessions will highlight

- * FEDLINK Joint Advisory Board/Membership Meeting (10:00am-10:30am)
- * Federal Library Technicians Respond to Covid-19 (10:45am-11:30am)
- * Library Support Services Vendors Virtual "Exhibit" (11:30am – 12:00pm)
- * Ask FEDLINK: Tips and Tools for Assisted Acquisitions (2:00pm – 2:45pm)
- * Stewardship of Digital Assets (3:00-3:45pm)