He shall be required to give bond acceptable to the community and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

No person shall represent the community on the council unless he is a duly enrolled member of the community who has attained the age of twenty-five years, and who has never been convicted of a major crime.

ARTICLE III—SALARIES

The councilmen shall receive as compensation for their services not to exceed $3.00 per day while in session, and a mileage fee of five cents per mile for travel from their home to place of meeting and return. Expenses shall be paid from tribal funds. The community council may fix salaries of officers or committeemen.

SEC. 6. Disqualification for interest.—No member of the council shall cast a vote on any question in which he may have a personal pecuniary interest.

ARTICLE V—LAND

SECTION 1. Allotted lands.—Allotted lands, including heirship lands, within the Fort Belknap Reservation shall continue to be held by their present owners as heretofore. It is recognized that under existing law such lands may be condemned for public purposes, such as roads, public buildings, or other public improvements, upon payment of adequate compensation, by any agency of the State of Montana or of the Federal Government, or by the tribe itself. It is further recognized that under existing law such lands may be inherited by the heirs of the present owner, whether or not they are members of the Fort Belknap Community. Likewise it is recognized that under existing law the Secretary of the Interior may remove restrictions upon such land, upon application by the Indian owner, whereupon the land will become subject to State taxes and may then be mortgaged or sold to non-Indians. The right of the individual Indian to hold or to lose his land, as under existing law, shall not be abrogated by anything contained in this constitution, but the owner of restricted land may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, voluntarily convey his land to the Fort Belknap Community either in exchange for a money payment or in exchange for an assignment covering the same land or other land, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. *Community lands.—The unallotted lands of the Fort Belknap Reservation, and all lands which may hereafter be acquired by the Fort Belknap Community, shall be held as community lands and shall not be allotted to individual Indians but may be assigned to members of the Fort Belknap Community, or leased, or otherwise used by the community as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 3. *Leasing of community lands.—Community lands may be leased by the community council, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, for such periods of time as are permitted by law.

In the leasing of community lands preference shall be given, first, to Indian cattle associations, and, secondly, to individual Indians who are members of the Fort Belknap Community. No lease of community land to a nonmember shall be made by the community council unless it shall appear that no Indian cattle association or individual member of the community is able and willing to use the land and to pay a reasonable fee for such use.

Grazing permits covering community land may be issued by the community council, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, in the same manner and upon the same terms as leases.

Free grazing privileges covering not to exceed 30 head of cattle or an equivalent amount of other livestock, may be assigned on community grazing land by the community council, to members of the community who do not have any grazing lands.

SEC. 4. *Grant of "standard" assignments.—In any assignment of community lands which are now owned by the community or which may be hereafter acquired for the community by the United States, or purchased by the community out of community funds, preference shall be given to members of the community who have no allotted lands or previous assignments of community lands.

Members of the community, who at the time of allotment on the Fort Belknap Reservation accepted a cash settlement in lieu of allotted lands, are considered as having allotted lands, and no preference will be shown such members by reason of their being landless.

No allotted member of the community who may hereafter have the restrictions upon his land removed and whose land may hereafter be alienated shall be entitled to receive an assignment of land as a landless Indian.

The community council may if it sees fit, charge a fee of not to exceed $25.00 on approval of an assignment made under this section.

Assignments made under this section shall be for the primary purpose of establishing homes for landless members of the community, and shall be known as "standard" assignments.

SEC. 5. *Tenure of standard assignments.—If any member of the community holding a standard assignment of land shall, for a period of two years fail to use the land so assigned, or shall, after due warning from the proper community officials, persist in using such land for any unlawful purpose, his assignment may be cancelled by the community council after due notice and an opportunity to be heard, and the said land may be reassigned in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of this article.

Upon the death of any Indian holding a “standard” assignment, his heirs or other individuals designated by him, by will or written request, shall have a preference in the reassignment of the land, provided such persons are members of the Fort Belknap Community who would be eligible to receive a “standard” assignment.

SEC. 6. *Grant of “exchange” assignments.—Any member of the community who owns an allotment or any share of heirship land may, with the approval of the secretary, voluntarily transfer his interest in such land to the community in exchange for an assignment to the same land or other land of equal value. If the assignee prefers, he may receive, in lieu of a specific tract of land, a proportionate share in a larger grazing unit.

Assignments made under this section shall be known as “exchange” assignments.

SEC. 7. *Leasing of exchange assignments.—Exchange assignments may be used by the assignee or leased by him to Indian cooperative associations, to individual members of the tribe, or, if no individual Indian or Indian cooperative association is able and willing to rent the land at a reasonable fee, such assignments may be leased to non-Indians, in the same manner as allotted lands.

SEC. 8. *Inheritance of exchange assignments.—Upon the death of the holder of any exchange assignment, such land shall be reassigned by the community council to his heirs or devisees, subject to the following conditions:

(a) Such lands may not be reassigned to any heir or devisee who is not a member of the Fort Belknap Community, except that a life assignment may be made to the surviving widower or widow of the holder of an assignment.

(b) Such lands may not be reassigned to any heir or devisee who already holds more than 1,000 acres of grazing land, or other land or interests in land of equal value, either under allotment or under exchange assignment.

(c) Such lands may not be subdivided among heirs or devisees into units too small for convenient management. No area of grazing land shall be subdivided into units smaller than 40 acres, and no area of agricultural land shall be subdivided into units smaller than two and one-half acres, except that land used for building or other improvements may be divided to suit the convenience of the parties. Where it is impossible to divide the land properly among the eligible heirs or devisees, the community council shall issue to such heirs or devisees grazing permits or other interests in tribal lands of the same value as the assignment of the decedent.

(d) If there are no eligible heirs or devisees of the decedent, the land shall be eligible for reassignment in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of this article.

SEC. 9. *Inheritance of improvements.—Improvements of any character made upon assigned land may be bequeathed to and inherited by members of the Fort Belknap Community or otherwise disposed of under such regulations as the community council shall provide. No permanent improvements shall be moved from the land without the consent of the community council.

SEC. 10. *Exchange of assignments.—Both standard and exchange assignments may be exchanged between members of the Fort Belknap Community by common consent in such manner as the community council shall designate.

SEC. 11. *Use of unassigned community land.—Community land which is not assigned, including community timber reserves, shall be managed by the community council for the benefit of the members of the entire community, and any cash income derived from such land shall accrue to the benefit of the community as a whole.

SEC. 12. *Purchase of land by community.—Tribal funds may be used, with the consent of the Secretary of the Interior, to acquire land, under the following conditions:

(a) Land within the Fort Belknap Reservation or adjacent to the boundaries thereof which is not now in Indian ownership may be purchased by or for the Fort Belknap Community.

(b) Restricted land, which is in heirship status at the time of the adoption and approval of this constitution, may be purchased by or for the community, with the consent of all the adult heirs, and the legal guardians of minor heirs, payment therefor to be made as may be agreed upon.

(c) Land owned by any member of the community who is over the age of 60 years, or who is physically incapacitated, may be transferred by its owner to the community in exchange for a consideration to be mutually agreed upon between the owner and the community council, such consideration to be paid in ten equal annual installments, either to the transferrer or in the case of his death to his heirs. Purchases made under this section shall be made from available tribal funds.

(d) Land in excess of 640 acres owned by any member of the community may be purchased by the community with the consent of the owner, payments to be made under such terms as may be agreed upon.

(e) Land owned by any member of the community who desires to leave the reservation permanently may be purchased by the community, payment to be made therefor in ten equal annual installments.

SEC. 13. *Method of making assignments.—Applications for assignment shall be filed with the secretary of the council and shall be in writing, setting forth the name of the person or persons applying for the land and as accurate a description of the land desired as the circumstances will permit. Notices of all applications received by the secretary shall be posted by him in the agency office and in at least three conspicuous places in the district in which the land is located for not less than 20 days before action is taken by the council. Any member of the community wishing to oppose the granting of an assignment shall do so in writing, setting forth his objections, to be filed with the secretary of the council, and may, if he so desires, appear before the council to present evidence. The secretary of the council shall furnish the superintendent or other officer in charge of the agency a complete record of all action taken by the council on applications for assignment of land, and a complete record of assignments shall be kept in the agency office and shall be open for inspection by members of the community.

The council shall draw up one or more forms for standard and exchange assignments, which forms shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.
