ARTICLE VII—LAND

SECTION 1. Allotted lands.—Allotted lands, including heirship lands, belonging to any member of the Fort McDermitt Paiute and Shoshone Tribe shall continue to be held as heretofore by their present owners. It is recognized that under existing law such lands may be condemned for public purposes, such as roads, public buildings, or other public improvements, upon payment of adequate compensation, by any agency of the State of Nevada or of the Federal Government. It is further recognized that under existing law such lands may be inherited by the heirs of the present owner, whether or not they are members of the Fort McDermitt Paiute and Shoshone Tribe. Likewise, it is recognized that under existing law the Secretary of the Interior may, at his discretion, remove restrictions upon such land, upon application by the Indian owner, whereupon the land will become subject to state taxes and may then be mortgaged or sold.

The right of the individual Indian to hold or to part with his land, as under existing law, shall not be abrogated by anything contained in this constitution, but the owner of restricted land may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, voluntarily convey his land to the Fort McDermitt Indian Tribe either in exchange for a money payment or in exchange for an assignment covering the same land or other land, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. Tribal lands.—The unallotted land of the Fort McDermitt Reservation and all lands which may hereafter be acquired by the Fort McDermitt Paiute and Shoshone Tribe or by the United States in trust for the Fort McDermitt Paiute and Shoshone Tribe, shall be held as tribal lands, and no part of such land shall be mortgaged or sold. Tribal lands shall not be allotted to individual Indians but may be assigned to members of the Fort McDermitt Indian Tribe, or leased or otherwise used by the tribe as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 3. Leasing of tribal lands.—Tribal lands may be leased by the Tribal Council, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, for such periods of time as are permitted by law.

In the leasing of tribal lands preference shall be given, first, to Indian cooperative associations, and secondly, to individual Indians who are members of the Fort McDermitt Paiute and Shoshone Tribe. No lease of tribal land to a nonmember shall be made by the Tribal Council unless it shall appear that no Indian cooperative association or individual member of the tribe is able and willing to use the land and to pay a reasonable fee for such use.

Grazing permits covering tribal land may be issued by the Tribal Council, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, in the same manner and upon the same terms as leases.

SEC. 4. Grant of "standard" assignments.—In any assignment of tribal lands which are now owned by the tribe or which may be hereafter acquired for the tribe by the United States, or purchased by the tribe out of Tribal funds, preference shall be given to members of the tribe who have no allotted lands or previous assignments of tribal lands.

No member of the tribe who may hereafter have the restrictions upon his land removed and whose land may hereafter be alienated shall be entitled to receive an assignment of land as a landless Indian.

The Tribal Council may if it sees fit, charge a fee of not to exceed $25 on approval of an assignment made under this section.

Assignments made under this section shall be for the primary purpose of establishing homes for landless members of the tribe, and shall be known as "standard" assignments.

SEC. 5. Tenure of standard assignments.—If any member of the tribe holding a standard assignment of land shall, for a period of 2 years fail to use the land so assigned, or shall, after due warning from the proper tribal officials, persist in using such land for any unlawful purpose, his assignment may be canceled by the Tribal Council after due notice and an opportunity to be heard, and the said land may be reassigned in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of this article.

Upon the death of any Indian holding a "standard" assignment, his heirs or other individuals designated by him, by will or written request, shall have a preference in the reassignment of the land, provided such persons are members of the Fort McDermitt Paiute and Shoshone Tribe who would be eligible to receive a "standard" assignment.

SEC. 6. Grant of "exchange" assignments.—Any member of the tribe who owns an allotment or any share of heirship land may voluntarily transfer his interest in such land to the tribe in exchange for any assignment of the same land or other land of equal value. If the assignee prefers, he may receive, in lieu of a specific tract of land, a proportionate share in a larger grazing unit.

Assignments made under this section shall be known as "Exchange" assignments.

SEC. 7. Leasing of exchange assignments.—Exchange assignments may be used by the assignee or leased by him to Indian cooperative associations, to individual members of the tribe, or, if no individual Indian or Indian cooperative association is able and willing to rent the land at a reasonable fee, such assignments may be leased to non-Indians, in the same manner as allotted lands.

SEC. 8. Inheritance of exchange assignments.—Upon the death of the holder of any exchange assignment, such land shall be reassigned by the Tribal Council to his heirs or devisees, subject to the following conditions:

(a) Such lands may not be reassigned to any heirs or devisees who are not members of the Fort McDermitt Paiute and Shoshone Tribe except that a life assignment may be made to the surviving widower or widow of the holder of the assignment.

(b) Such lands may not be reassigned to any heirs or devisees who already hold more than a certain number of acres of grazing land, or other land or interests in land of equal value, either under allotment or under assignment, such amounts to be determined from time to time by the Council.

(c) Such lands may not be subdivided among heirs or devisees into units too small for convenient management. No area of grazing land shall be subdivided into units smaller than 20 acres, and no area of agricultural land shall be subdivided into units smaller than 1 acre, except that land used for buildings or other improvements may be divided to suit the convenience of the parties. Where it is impossible to divide the land properly among the eligible heirs or devisees, the Tribal Council shall issue to such heirs or devisees grazing permits or other interests in tribal lands of the same value as the assignments of the decedent.

(d) If there are no eligible heirs or devisees of the decedent, the land shall be eligible for reassignment in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of this article.

SEC. 9. Inheritance of improvements.—Improvements of any character made upon assigned land may be bequeathed to and inherited by members of the Fort McDermitt Paiute and Shoshone Tribe or otherwise disposed of under such regulations as the Tribal Council shall provide. No permanent improvements shall be removed from the land without the consent of the Tribal Council.

SEC. 10. Exchange of assignments.—Assignments may be exchanged between members of the Fort McDermitt Paiute and Shoshone Tribe by common consent in such manner as the Tribal Council shall designate.

SEC. 11. Use of unassigned tribal land.—Tribal land which is not assigned shall be managed by the Tribal Council for the benefit of the members of the entire tribe, and any cash income derived from such land shall accrue to the benefit of the tribe as a whole. All action of the Fort McDermitt Tribal Council with respect to such lands shall be in conformity with departmental regulations for the protection of Indian range and timber resources authorized by section 6 of the Act of June 18, 1934.

SEC. 12. Purchase of land by the tribe.—Tribal funds may be used with the consent of the Secretary of the Interior to acquire land under the following conditions:

(b) Restricted land, which is in heirship status at the time of the adoption and approval of this Constitution, may be purchased by or for the tribe, with the consent of all the adult heirs, and the legal guardians of minor heirs, payment therefor to be made as may be agreed upon.

(c) Land owned by any member of the tribe who is over the age of 60 years, or who is physically incapacitated, may be transferred by its owner to the tribe in exchange for a pension of not more than twice the usual rental value of the land for the life of the pensioner, to be paid out of available tribal funds.

(d) Land owned by any member of the tribe who desires to leave the reservation permanently may be purchased by the tribe, under such terms as may be agreed upon.

SEC. 13. Method of making assignments.—Applications for assignment shall be filed with the secretary of the Council and shall be in writing, setting forth the name of the person or persons applying for the land and as accurate a description of the land desired as the circumstances will permit. Notices of all applications received by the secretary shall be posted in the agency office and in at least three conspicuous places in the district in which the land is located for not less than 20 days before action is taken by the Council.
