Whereas, more than one-third of the adult members of the tribe have petitioned that a charter of incorporation be granted to the tribe, subject to ratification by a vote of the adult Indians living on the Reservation;

Management.

4. The Fort Hall Business Council established in accordance with the said Constitution and By-laws of the tribe, shall exercise all the corporate powers hereinafter enumerated.

Corporate Powers.

5. The tribe, subject to any restrictions contained in the Constitution and laws of the United States, or in the Constitution and By-laws of the said tribe, shall have the following corporate powers, in addition to all powers already conferred or guaranteed by the tribal Constitution and By-laws:
- (a) To adopt, use, and alter at its pleasure a corporate seal.
 - (b) To purchase, take by gift, bequest, or otherwise, own, hold, manage, operate, and dispose of property of every description, real and personal subject to the following limitations:
 - (1) No sale or mortgage may be made by the tribe of any land, or interests in land, now or hereafter held by the tribe, except as provided by law.
 - (2) No leases, permits or contracts (which terms shall not include land assignments to members of the tribe) covering any land or interests in land now or hereafter held by the tribe within the boundaries of the Fort Hall Reservation shall be made by the tribe for a longer term than 5 years, and all such leases, permits or contracts must be approved by the Secretary of the Interior or by his duly authorized representative; but mineral leases or any leases requiring substantial improvements of the land may be made for longer periods when authorized by law.
 - (3) No action shall be taken by or in behalf of the tribe which in any way operates to destroy or injure the tribal grazing lands, or other natural resources of the Fort Hall Reservation. All leases or permits relating to the use of tribal grazing lands shall conform to regulations of the Secretary of the Interior authorized by Section 6 of the Act of June 18, 1934, with respect to range carrying capacity, and other matters therein specified. Conformity to such regulations shall be made a condition of any such lease or permit, whether or not such agreement requires the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, and violation of such condition shall render the agreement revocable, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior.
