of the Alabama and Coushatta Tribes, or may be leased or otherwise used by the tribe as hereinafter provided for.

SEC. 5. In any assignment of tribal lands which are now owned by the tribe or which may hereafter be acquired for the tribe by the United States or purchased by the tribe out of tribal funds, or which may be designated for the use of the tribe, preference shall be given, first, to heads of families which are entirely landless; and second, to heads of families who have already received assignments consisting of less than an economic unit of agricultural land or other land or interests in land of equal value, such economic unit to be determined by ordinances of the Tribal Council, which shall be subject to review by the Secretary of the Interior or his designated representative. Assignments made under this section shall be known as standard assignments.

The Tribal Council may, if it sees fit, charge an assignee a fee according to a scale adopted by the Council but not to exceed $5.00, on approval of an assignment made under this section.

SEC. 6. If any person holding a standard assignment of land shall for a period of two years fail to use the land so assigned or shall use the land for any unlawful purpose, his assignment may be canceled by the Tribal Council after due notice and opportunity to be heard. Such land may then be available for reassignment.

Upon the death of any Indian holding a standard assignment his heirs or other individuals designated by him by written request shall have preference in the reassignment of the land provided such persons are eligible to receive a standard assignment.

SEC. 7. Any member of the Alabama and Coushatta Tribes who owns a piece of land or any share in heirship land or any deeded land, may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, voluntarily transfer his interest in such land to the tribe, receiving in return therefor an assignment in the same land or other land of equal value, or he may receive a proportionate share in a unit of agricultural, grazing or other land, or a certificate of interest representing its current market value.

Assignments made under this section shall be known as exchange assignments.

SEC. 8. Upon the death of a holder of an exchange assignment, the land shall be re-assigned by the Tribal Council to his heirs or devisees, subject to the following conditions:

(b) Such lands may not be reassigned to any heir or devisee who is not a member of the Alabama and Coushatta Tribes except that a life assignment may be made to the surviving spouse or child of the holder of such assignment, provided the spouse is a full-blood Indian.

(c) Such land may not be subdivided into units too small for practical use. The Tribal Council shall determine the practical subdivision of the land in each case. If the land cannot be properly subdivided, the Tribal Council may issue to each heir or devisee a proportionate share in other lands or other interests in land of equal value.

(d) If there are no eligible heirs or devisees of the decedent, the land shall be eligible for reassignment, the same as other tribal lands.

SEC. 9. Improvements of any character made upon assigned land may be willed to and inherited by members of the Alabama and Coushatta Tribes. When improvements are not possible of fair division, the Tribal Council shall dispose of them under such regulations as it may provide for the benefit of the heirs. No permanent improvements may be removed from any tribal or assigned land without the consent of the Tribal Council.

SEC. 10. No member of the Alabama and Coushatta Tribes may use or occupy tribal lands except under an assignment or lease.

SEC. 11. Unassigned land shall be managed by the Tribal Council for the benefit of the members of the entire tribe, subject to regulations of the Secretary of the Interior issued in accordance with section 6 of the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984).

SEC. 12. Available tribal funds may be used, with the consent of the Secretary of the Interior, to acquire land for the Alabama and Coushatta Tribes.

SEC. 13. The right to determine the amount of land and make assignment to each lawful assignee shall vest in the Tribal Council, whose decision shall be subject to the final approval of a Board of Review, consisting of the Superintendent of the Agency as chairman, and two members of the Alabama and Coushatta Tribes at large to be selected by the Tribal Council. The economic needs of the individual, with due regard to land availability and limitation, together with the principles of justice and equity shall be the basic factors affecting the decision in land assignments of both the Tribal Council and the Board of Review. The decision of the Board of Review, as heretofore outlined, shall be final.

ARTICLE IX—AMENDMENTS

This Constitution and By-laws may be amended by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the Alabama and Coushatta Tribes voting at an election called for that purpose by the Secretary of the Interior, provided at least 30 per cent of those entitled to vote shall vote in such election, but no amendment shall become effective until it shall have been approved by the Secretary of the Interior.
