NO. 13.

An act entitled an act regulating the time and manner of Sheriffs' making Reports to their respective County Treasurers, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the General Council of the Choctaw Nation assembled, that each and every Sheriff of this Nation is hereby required to make quarterly reports to their respective county Treasurer; exhibiting for his inspection all papers, permits, executions and other documents of whatsoever character remaining in his hands uncollected or served, and then and there turn over all funds belonging to his county to said Treasurer; and all funds due to the officers or other persons, such as fees, judgments, etc., taking their respective receipts. And failure on the part of any Sheriff, of this Nation, or refusal to comply with the foregoing, or attempt to withhold any funds due the county official or person to whom, by law the same is due, shall be construed as sufficient grounds for the vacation of his commission as Sheriff by the Principal Chief, who shall at once vacate the same upon the sworn statement of any county Treasurer, setting forth the facts that such Sheriff refuses, fails, or neglects to comply with the terms of this act.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted that it shall be the duty of each County Treasurer, of this Nation, to carefully examine all papers, permits, executions and other documents in the hands of the Sheriff of their respective counties quarterly, when presented to him by said Sheriff, in compliance with Section 1, of this act, and if it should be found, after examination, that said Sheriff has fairly exhibited all papers in his office and duly turned over and accounted for all funds due the county of which he is Sheriff, he shall so certify in writing to that effect, and it shall be a receipt to the Sheriff for that quarter, provided, however, that the Sheriff's report and examination of the papers in his office together with the delivery of the county funds by said Sheriff to his respective County Treasurer shall be made in open County Court and under the supervision of the County Judge, and the result of such examination, etc., be spread upon the minutes of said Court to be approved by said Judge. And provided further, that should the Treasurer find upon examination of any Sheriff's office that he is withholding funds due the county of which he may be Sheriff, it shall be his duty to so state to the Principal Chief under oath, setting forth the facts and amount of such shortage.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, that from and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any Sheriff of this Nation to receive money and receipt for the same in lieu of a permit in any case before such permit shall have been applied for and issued. Every Sheriff violating this section shall be fined not less than twenty dollars for each and every offense upon conviction in the Circuit Court of his district. And such receipt or sworn testimony of the party to whom it was given shall be conclusive evidence against him.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, that the fees allowed by law to the County Clerks for the issuing of permits be and the same is hereby made payable out of the county treasury of their respective counties; and all acts and parts of acts heretofore enacted, coming in contact with with this act, are hereby repealed, and that this act take effect from and after its passage.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Council of the Choctaw Nation assembled, that the Special Delegation to Washington City, D. C., are to be paid as follows, to-wit: The expenses of W. N. Jones, Principal Chief, and Green McCurtain, National Treasurer, are to be paid, they being salaried officers, and the other, who ~~is to~~ be appointed and confirmed, shall receive for his services ~~five~~ hundred dollars and his expenses actually incurred while in the performance of his mission; provided, however, the said appointee is not a salaried officer, in which case his expenses alone shall be paid, and the National Treasurer shall pay the same on the order of the Principal Chief.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, that the delegation of 1889, to wit: J. S. Standley, H. C. Harris and R. J. Ward shall not be entitled to any per diem or expense funds; and that this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

It became a law by its own limitation.

This is to certify that the above is a true and correct copy of the original acts now on file in my office.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the Choctaw Nation.
