Cases not finally disposed of within that time, for ever barred.
Proviso.
Further proviso.

APPROVED, July 27, 1842.

CHAP. LXXXII.—An Act to extend the jurisdiction of the corporation of Georgetown.

STATUTE II.
July 27, 1842.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the jurisdiction of the corporation of Georgetown is hereby extended so as to include the bridge lately constructed by the said corporation across the river Potomac, at the Little Falls, and the site of said bridge and premises appertaining to said site; and that, as often and as long as said bridge shall hereafter, from any cause, be impassable, it shall and may be lawful for the proprietors of land on both sides of the said river, through which the ferry road to connect with the Falls Bridge turnpike must necessarily pass, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to establish and keep a ferry, at any rate of ferriage not exceeding the tolls which the Georgetown Bridge Company were heretofore authorized to charge on their bridge.

Jurisdiction extended so as to include the Little Falls bridge.

A ferry may be established.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That said Corporation of Georgetown, in addition to its present chartered powers, shall have full power and authority to provide for licensing, taxing, and regulating, within its corporate limits, all traders, retailers, pawnbrokers, and to tax venders of lottery tickets, money changers, hawkers and pedlars.

Powers of the corporation of Georgetown extended.
