THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS. Sess. II. Ch. 147-151. 1862.

CHAP. CXLVII.— An Act to abolish certain Ports of Delivery in the Mississippi Valley.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the several laws constituting Hannibal, in the State of Missouri, Hickman and Columbus, in the State of Kentucky, Chattanooga and Knoxville, in the State of Tennessee, and Tusculumbia, in the State of Alabama, and Shreveport, in the State of Louisiana, ports of delivery, be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

APPROVED, July 11, 1862.

CHAP. CXLVIII.—An Act for the Establishment of certain National Arsenals.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be, and hereby is, established a national arsenal at Columbus, in the State of Ohio, at Indianapolis, in the State of Indiana, and on Rock Island, in the State of Illinois, for the deposit and repair of arms and other munitions of war.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of carrying this act into effect, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars for each arsenal named in the preceding section be, and the same is hereby, appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

APPROVED, July 11, 1862.

CHAP. CXLIX.— An Act to change the Place of holding the Circuit and District Courts of the United States for the District of West Tennessee.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter the circuit and district courts of the United States for the district of West Tennessee shall be holden on the first Mondays in April and October, in the town of Huntingdon, in the county of Carroll, in said district, instead of the town of Jackson, the place heretofore fixed by law. And all process, civil and criminal, which may have been, or hereafter may be, issued, returnable to said courts at Jackson, shall be returned to said courts at Huntingdon; and all books and records of every kind, pertaining to said courts, shall be transferred from said town of Jackson to said town of Huntingdon.

CHAP. CLI. — An Act to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to appoint a Deputy Collector of the Customs at Chincoteague Island, in the State of Virginia.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized to appoint, according to law, a deputy collector of customs to reside on Chincoteague Island, in the State of Virginia, and to exercise such powers, under the revenue laws, as he, the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe; the compensation of the said deputy collector to be the legal fees on the business he may transact, and no more.

CHAP. CLII. — An Act relating to Schools for the Education of Colored Children in the Cities of Washington and Georgetown, in the District of Columbia.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the duties imposed on the board of trustees of the public schools in the cities of Washington and Georgetown, in the District of Columbia, by virtue of an act entitled (ante, p. 407) VOL.
