SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That such examining board shall consist of not less than three officers, senior in rank to the officer to be examined.

of whom to consist.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That any officer to be acted upon by said board shall have the right to be present, if he desires it; and his statement of his case, on oath, and the testimony of witnesses, and his examination, shall be recorded. And any matter on the files and records of the department touching each case, as may in the opinion of the board be necessary to assist them in making up their opinion, shall, together with the whole record and finding, be presented to the President for his approval or disapproval of the finding. And no officer shall be rejected until after such public examination of himself and the records of the department in his case, unless he fails to appear before said board after having been duly notified.

Officers interested may be present at examination.

Record of case to be presented to the President.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That no officer in the naval service shall be promoted to a higher grade therein, upon the active list, until he has been examined by a board of naval surgeons, and pronounced physically qualified to perform all his duties at sea. And all officers whose cases shall have been acted upon by the aforesaid boards, and who shall not have been recommended for promotion by both of them, shall be placed upon the retired list.

No officer to be promoted unless shown by examination to be physically qualified.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That all officers not recommended for promotion under the fourth section of an act entitled "An act to
