

CHAP. CCXVIII. — An Act to incorporate the Metropolitan Mining and Manufacturing Company. July 23, 1866.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That John Ford, George D. Williams, Thomas W. Hyde, Oliver Edwards, Charles H. Herd, Samuel A. Fulton, Charles Otis, Charles A. Ecleston, George W. Holmes, Joseph E. Hollis, John F. Broadhead, and Lewis P. Moody, or any five of them, be, and are hereby, authorized and empowered to receive subscriptions to the capital stock of a corporation to be denominated the Metropolitan Mining and Manufacturing Company of the District of Columbia, who shall open a book for that purpose in the city of Washington, at the time and place to be by them designated, of which they shall give five days' notice in two or more of the daily papers of said city, and shall keep the same open until twenty thousand shares of one hundred dollars a share each shall have been subscribed; and any person of lawful age, and a citizen of the United States, shall be permitted to subscribe upon paying five dollars on each share at the time of subscribing. And it shall be lawful for the said corporation to have a common seal, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and have and exercise all the rights, privileges, and immunities for the purpose of the corporation hereby created.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the affairs of the company shall be managed by nine directors, to be elected annually by ballot on the second Monday of July, by the stockholders or by their legally empowered agents; and each share of stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote; the election to be held at the office of the company at a general meeting of the stockholders convened for that purpose, by ten days' public notice in two or more of the daily papers of the city of Washington: Provided, That the first election for directors shall be held pursuant to five days' notice given in one or more of the daily papers of the city of Washington, by the persons named in the first section of this act, or any five of them, who shall designate the time when and the place where said election shall be held; and the stockholders shall then and there elect nine directors to serve until the next ensuing election and until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified as provided for in this act. And at the first ensuing meeting of the directors after every election they shall appoint one of their number as president, who shall hold office until the election and qualification of his successor. And five members of said board shall compose a quorum. And in case that an election for directors should not be made when pursuant to this act it should have been made, the company for that cause shall not be dissolved; and it shall be lawful within forty days thereafter to hold and make an election for directors in such manner as the by-laws of the company may prescribe, and the president and directors for the time being shall be continued in office until such election take place. And in the event of the death, resignation, or removal of any director from office, his place for the remainder of his term may be filled by the president and directors for the time being, in such manner as the by-laws may prescribe.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the president and directors shall have power to appoint a secretary and such other officers, agents, and clerks as may to them appear proper, to fix their compensation, and pay the same.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the capital stock shall be called in and paid in such instalments and proportions, and at such times and places, as the president and directors, for the time being, may require and designate. And if any stockholder, subscriber, their assignee or transferee, shall refuse or neglect to pay such proportion or instalment at the time and place appointed, such stockholder, subscriber, transferee, or assignee shall, at the option of the president and directors, forfeit to the
