

in the act or acts authorizing such levy to be made, and that no change whatsoever shall be made by transfer of one fund to another, or by paying out any sum or sums of money on account of any object or purpose for which it was not levied or collected. No transfer from one fund to another.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in no case shall the sum levied for the "general fund," or miscellaneous purposes, exceed twenty-five cents on the hundred dollars of valuation. Limit to levy for the "general fund."

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the mayor of the city of Washington, by and with the consent of the board of aldermen thereof, shall appoint an auditor and a comptroller for said city, each to receive such annual compensation as shall be fixed by an act of the corporation of Washington, and whose offices shall be adjacent to that occupied by the mayor: It shall be the duty of the auditor to audit all accounts against the said corporation; to certify the same, when found correct, to the comptroller; and to retain the originals of all contracts made and orders given for all descriptions of work or improvements by the corporation aforesaid. It shall be the duty of the comptroller to keep an exact account of all warrants issued in the manner hereinafter provided for, and of all taxes levied by the corporation, under their respective heads; to countersign and keep an accurate record for all receipts for taxes or other revenue of any description whatever, given by the collector and register, such receipts not to be valid unless so countersigned, and to compare the same daily with the books of said collector and register. Each and every account against the corporation of Washington, when audited and certified by the auditor, shall be paid by a warrant of the comptroller, countersigned by the mayor; and in no case shall payments be made in any other manner than provided for in this act. But no account shall be paid, by warrant or otherwise, unless there is a fund to the credit of that particular account. The money received from any and all sources, for and on account of the corporation, shall, on the day of its receipt, be deposited by the collector and register to the credit of the city of Washington, in such place as may be designated as a depository for the funds of the corporation by an act of the board of aldermen and board of common council, approved by the mayor; and such depository shall, each day that deposits are made, furnish a statement of the same to the comptroller, to be by him filed in his office. An auditor and a comptroller to be appointed.

CHAP. CCXIII. — An Act to construe certain Acts therein cited, in Relation to Pensions. July 7, 1870.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That neither the act of July twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, entitled "An act increasing the pensions of widows and orphans, and for other purposes." nor the act Amounts fixed by special acts granting pensions not to be increased, or reduced by acts 1866, ch. 235, Vol. xiv. p. 230. 1868, ch. 264. Vol. xv. p. 235.

of July twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, entitled "An act relating to pensions," shall be so construed as to increase the amount directed to be paid in any special act of Congress granting a pension; nor shall said acts be construed so as to reduce the same whenever such act fixes definitely the amount of pension to which the person therein named shall be entitled, in excess of the rate fixed by general law for the rank in respect to which such special pensions may have been or may hereafter be granted.

Sums heretofore withheld to be paid over.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall have the effect to restore to the persons affected hereby any sums heretofore withheld from them by the construction hereinbefore prohibited.
