commissioners, and if said railroad company shall not construct that portion of said work with the same material, except between the rails and between the tracks, and in as satisfactory a manner, and as rapidly as the residue of said work shall be constructed, then the same shall be constructed under the direction of said commissioners in the same manner as the other portion of said work. The said railroad company shall have the right to select the material with which the pavement between the rails and between the tracks shall be made: Provided, That the said pavement on said tracks shall be made to the satisfaction of the commissioners. The lessees of Market Square between Seventh and Ninth streets shall pay for that portion of the pavement between said square and the line two feet from the railroad track aforesaid. The portion of the pavement lying between the Botanic gardens and a line two feet outside of the track of the railroad company shall be paid for by the United States government: Provided, That the cost of laying such pavement shall not exceed the sum of four dollars per square yard.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the assessment contemplated in the foregoing section shall be made by the commission above authorized, and the sums so found due shall be collected and held, but as a special fund, by the collector of Washington, in accordance with existing laws; and the moneys so collected and held shall be paid by him to the contractors for the work above authorized on the warrant or order of the said commission, in such amounts and at such times as they may deem safe and proper in view of the progress of the work.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That if the Washington and Georgetown Railroad Company, or any private citizen, or other corporation or person, shall neglect or refuse to pay the amount assessed for the paving herein authorized (within thirty days after the notification of such assessment shall have been left at the property assessed) in front of or adjoining their property, when the work so fronting or adjoining their property shall have been completed to the satisfaction of the commission and assessed by them, the said commission shall issue certificates of indebtedness against the property, which certificates shall bear interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum until paid, and which, until they are paid, shall remain and be a lien upon the property on or against which they are issued. And if the said certificates are not paid within one year, the said commission shall, upon the application of the holder thereof, proceed to sell the property against which they are issued, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay said tax, such sales to be first duly advertised, daily, for three successive weeks, in some newspaper published in the city of Washington, and to be made at public auction to the highest bidder; and a deed given by the commission in pursuance hereof shall be deemed and held to be a good and perfect title to any property bought at such sale hereby authorized: Provided, That the owner of said real estate shall have the right to redeem the property sold by paying the amount of purchase money and twenty per centum on the amount of the said purchase within one year from the date of the sale.
