CHAP. CCLVI. — An Act to authorize the continued Employment of an Agent and Counsel of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be lawful for the President of the United States, in his discretion, to continue the appointment and employment of the present agent and counsel of the United States, under articles twelve to seventeen, inclusive, of the treaty between the United States and Great Britain, concluded May eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, and for said agent and counsel to act under such continued appointment and employment, notwithstanding the election of the said agent and counsel as a representative in the forty-third Congress: Provided, That such appointment and employment shall not continue after said agent and counsel shall have taken the oath of office as such representative.

APPROVED, March 3, 1873.

CHAP. CCLVII. — An Act supplemental to an Act entitled “An Act to incorporate the Texas Pacific Railroad Company, and to aid in the Construction of its Road, and for other Purposes,” approved March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the face value of all bonds hereafter issued by the Texas and Pacific Railroad Company, under the provisions of an act approved March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, shall, at the option of the company, be either in gold, or other lawful money of the United States, bearing interest, at like option of the company, either in gold or other lawful money of the United States; and any mortgage heretofore executed by said company, securing bonds payable in any lawful money of the United States other than gold, and the bonds recited therein, and to secure which, said mortgage was given, are hereby legalized, and said mortgage and bonds shall have the same effect as though they had been authorized by the act to which this is a supplement. Provided, That in all other respects the requirements of that law in regard to such mortgage and bonds have been fully complied with

APPROVED, March 3, 1873.

CHAP. CCLVIII. — An Act for the Suppression of Trade in, and Circulation of, obscene Literature and Articles of immoral Use.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That whoever, within the District of Columbia or any of the Territories of the United States, or other place within the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States, selling or possessing obscene books, pictures, &c.; or drugs, &c., for preventing conception or causing abortion; or advertising or making the same.
