FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS. Sess. III. Ch. 36–39. 1873.

CHAP. XXXVI.—An Act to prevent certain Officers of the United States and Territories from practising as Attorneys or Solicitors in Courts of the United States in certain Cases.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, That no clerk, assistant or deputy clerk, of any Territorial, district, or circuit court, or of the Court of Claims, or the Supreme Court of the United States, or marshal or deputy marshal of the United States within the district for which he is appointed, shall act as a solicitor, proctor, attorney or counsel in any cause depending in either of said courts, or in any district for which he is acting as such officer.

SEC. 2. That whosoever shall violate any provision of this act shall be stricken from the roll of attorneys by the court upon complaint, upon which the respondent shall have due notice, and be heard in his defence, and in the case of a marshal or deputy marshal so acting, he shall be recommended by the court for dismissal from office.

APPROVED, January 16, 1873.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, That the provisions of an act entitled “An act relating to members of Congress, heads of Departments, and other officers of the government,” approved June eleventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, be so extended as to apply in all respects to Delegates from the Territories, and the District or Territory of the United States.

CHAP. XXXVIII.—An Act to authorize the Erection of a public Building at Evansville, Indiana.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to cause to be erected at Evansville, in the State of Indiana, a suitable brick building for the accommodation of the custom-house, post-office, United States courts, and other offices of the United States, on plans to be determined by him, and at a cost, including the cost of the site thereof, of not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars, and such site shall be of such extent as to leave the building independent and unexposed to fire from any and all adjoining buildings: Provided, That no appropriations for this purpose shall be used or expended until a valid title to said site shall be vested in the United States, and until the State of Indiana shall duly release and relinquish its right to tax said site and the property of the United States that may be and remain thereon, and its jurisdiction over the same.

APPROVED, January 16, 1873.

CHAP. XXXIX.—An Act to fix the Compensation of Gaugers and Measurers at the Port of Boston.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, That the compensation of gaugers and measurers at the port of Boston shall be the same as provided for the same class of officers at the port of New York under existing laws.
