general term to hear an appeal from any judgment or decree or order which he may have rendered at the special term. Sec. 3. The general term may order two terms of the circuit court to be held at the same time, whenever, in their judgment, the business therein shall require it; and they shall designate by an order of the court, the time and places of holding the same, and the justices by whom they shall, respectively, be held; and shall make all necessary orders for a division of the docket between the justices holding such term; and petit juries shall be drawn therefor, in the same manner as is provided for in such circuit court, at least ten days before the commencement of any such sitting. Sec. 4. The final judgment or decree of the supreme court of the District of Columbia in any case where the matter in dispute, exclusive of costs, exceeds the value of twenty-five hundred dollars, may be re-examined and reversed or affirmed in the supreme court of the United States, upon writ of error or appeal in the same manner and under the same regulations as are provided in cases of writs of error on judgments or appeals from decrees rendered in a circuit-court. Sec. 5. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved, February 25, 1879.
