Conditions.

The conditions and limitations upon which, and the extent to which, said consent is given are as follows:

Limit of area.

First. That neither the lessees, nor any one under them, shall exercise any rights of any kind under or by virtue of any of said leases over, in, or upon an area beyond or outside of one square mile.

Period.

Second. That no one of said leases shall continue in force for a longer period than thirty years from the passage of this act.

 Report of coal mined, royalties, etc.

Third. That the lessees, or those holding under them, shall, during the first week of each month, render to the Secretary of the Interior a statement under the oath of its president, or at least one of any joint owners under said lessee, showing the amount of coal taken from the mines covered by said leases as herein prescribed, for the month preceding, and the royalties paid to the said Choctaw Nation, and the individual citizens holding said rights, and the price per ton the same has been sold by those having the right to mine the same under the said leases.

Restriction of prices for sales.

Fourth. That no higher rate per ton than the average rate per ton for which such coal has for the next six months next preceding the first day of September, eighteen hundred and ninety, been sold by said lessees, or those holding under them, shall, during said thirty years, be exacted of any purchaser, except upon the written permission of the Secretary of the Interior.

All obligations of lessees to be performed.

Fifth. That all the obligations of said leases, except as the same may be herein modified or limited, shall be faithfully preserved and performed by said lessees, or those holding under them, and that no right shall be claimed or exercised in the lands covered by said leases or the surface thereof, except such as shall be proper and necessary for the profitable development and working of the mines therein, and ingress and egress to and from the same, and for the erection and maintenance of necessary and proper machinery for said purposes.

Rights restricted to mining, etc.

Rights of Chickasaws, etc., not impaired.

SEC. 2. That the consent hereby given shall in no way impair or affect the rights which any person or persons, or the Chickasaw

Nation of Indians, may have had before the passage of this act in and to the subject-matter of said leases. And nothing in this act contained shall be construed as validating, impairing, or in any way affecting the right of the lessors to make the same, or the authority under or by virtue of which they have been executed or any other lease or leases already or hereafter made.

SEC. 3. That any violation of, or failure to conform to, any of the conditions or limitations herein set forth on the part of said lessees, or those holding under them, shall be taken and deemed to be a forfeiture and revocation of the consent herein given without further action on the part of the United States.

Approved, October 1, 1890.

Violation of conditions to forfeit consent.

CHAP. 1253.—An act to authorize the construction of a bridge across the Missouri River at the most accessible point within one mile above or below the town of Quindaro, in the county of Wyandotte and State of Kansas.

October 1, 1890.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Wyandotte County Bridge and Terminal Railway Company, a corporation duly created and existing under the laws of the State of Kansas, and its successors, be, and they are hereby, authorized to construct and maintain a bridge and approaches thereto over the Missouri River at the most accessible point, to be selected by it or them, within one mile above or below the town of Quindaro, in the county of Wyandotte and State of Kansas. Said bridge shall be constructed to provide for the passage of railway trains, and, at the option of said company, or its successors, said bridge may be so constructed or maintained that passage may be accorded to wagons and vehicles of all kinds, and for the transit of animals and for foot-passengers, under such reasonable rules and regulations as may be prescribed by said corporation, or its successors, and be approved from time to time by the Secretary of War.

Wyandotte County Bridge and Terminal Railway Company may bridge Missouri River, at Quindaro, Kans.
