CHAP. 3541.—An Act To amend section one of the Act approved March third, nineteen hundred and five, providing for an additional associate justice of the supreme court of Arizona, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Act providing for an additional associate justice of the supreme court of Arizona, and for other purposes, approved March third, nineteen hundred and five, be so amended that the first section thereof shall read as follows:

“That hereafter the supreme court of the Territory of Arizona shall consist of a chief justice and four associate justices, any three of whom shall constitute a quorum, but three justices must concur in order to reverse a judgment or other determination of a district court, except that in any case where two or more of the five justices shall be disqualified from sitting, the justices qualified shall constitute a quorum, and a majority thereof may affirm or reverse such case, but should a case be tried before only two justices their disagreement would be an affirmance of the case.”

Approved, June 25, 1906.

CHAP. 3542.—An Act Defining the qualifications of jurors for service in the United States district court in Porto Rico.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the qualifications of jurors as fixed by the local laws of Porto Rico shall not apply to jurors selected to serve in the district court of the United States for Porto Rico, but that the qualifications required of jurors in said court shall be that each shall be of the age of twenty-one years and not over sixty-five years, a resident of Porto Rico for not less than one year, and having a sufficient knowledge of the English language to enable him to duly serve as a juror: Provided, That the exemption from jury duty allowed by the local law shall be respected by the court when insisted upon by veniremen: And provided further, That the juries for said court shall always be selected and drawn in accordance with the laws of Congress regulating the same in the United States courts.

CHAP. 3543.—An Act To authorize the Back River Bridge Company to construct a bridge across the west or smaller division of the Ohio River from Wheeling Island, West Virginia, to the Ohio shore.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Back River Bridge Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of West Virginia, its successors and assigns, be, and they are hereby, authorized to construct, maintain, and operate a bridge and approaches thereto, for street railway and wagon traffic and other appropriate public uses, across the west or smaller channel of the Ohio River, known as the Back River, from a point near the southerly end of Wheeling Island, which is a part of the city of Wheeling, in the State of West Virginia, to the Ohio shore, in accordance with the provisions of the Act entitled “An Act to regulate the construction of bridges over navigable waters,” approved March twenty-third, nineteen hundred and six.

Sec. 2. That the right to alter, amend, or repeal this Act is hereby expressly reserved.

Approved, June 25, 1906.
