SEC. 3. That within sixty days from the approval of this Act the company shall deposit one thousand dollars with the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia to guarantee the construction of its railway within the prescribed time. If this sum is not so deposited, this charter shall be void. If the sum is so deposited and the road is not in operation as herein prescribed, said one thousand dollars shall be forfeited to the District of Columbia and this charter shall be void.

SEC. 4. That failure or neglect to comply with any of the provisions of this Act, except as hereinbefore provided for, shall render the said corporation liable to a fine of twenty-five dollars for each and every day during which such failure or neglect shall continue, which penalty may be recovered in the name of the District of Columbia by the Commissioners of the said District in any court of competent jurisdiction: Provided, however, That unless the line of the said railway shall be completed, with cars running regularly thereon for the accommodation of passengers, within two years from the date of the passage of this Act this charter shall be null and void.

SEC. 5. That the said company, in conjunction with the Capital Traction Company, may receive a rate of fare not exceeding five cents for each passenger for one continuous ride over the route aforesaid and the route of the said Capital Traction Company within the District of Columbia, or any part thereof, and shall sell tickets at the rate of six for twenty-five cents.

SEC. 6. That all the powers, rights, duties, and limitations imposed by the Act of Congress authorizing said Baltimore and Washington Transit Company to enter the District of Columbia, approved June eighth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, shall be applicable to the extension of the line of said company as proposed herein except as said Act may be amended by the provisions hereof, it being the intent that said original Act shall be applied to this extension in the same manner as if said extension had been included in the original Act.

SEC. 7. That the privileges herein granted are granted on the express condition that cars shall be run under such rules as may from time to time be made by the District Commissioners, and any violation of which shall be a misdemeanor, and for any such violation said corporation shall be liable to a fine of not less than fifty dollars and not to exceed two hundred dollars.

SEC. 8. That Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal this Act.
